K'taka scrapping Muslim quota on shaky ground: SC

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday observed that the recent Karnataka government order (GO) scrapping 4% Muslim quota in the state and reallocating it to the dominant Vokkaliga and Lingayat communities, was on highly shaky ground and flawed.

Amid indications that the court could stay the GO, the Karnataka government bought time by assuring that it would not make any appointment or admissions on the basis of its March 27 GO. The GO had shifted Muslims from the OBC list to the 10% Economically Weaker Section quota pool.

> They have removed 4% reservation for Muslims in Karnataka. It's completely against a series of SC judgments. Why is it done overnight? On the eve of election? Without any report?
> Dushyant Dave

A bench of justices K M Joseph and B V Nagarathna said its prima facie opinion was that the GO was based on fallacious assumptions, adding it was in the teeth of Justice Chinnappa Reddy commission's report. "This GO is based on completely fallacious assumptions. We are only saying prima facie. The order which you have passed appears to suggest that the foundation of the decision-making process is highly shaky and flawed," Justice Joseph remarked.

Questioning the urgency to scrap the quota ahead of the Assembly elections, Justice Nagarathna said, it was done based on an interim report of the Karnataka State Commission for Backward Classes. "The government could have waited for the final report. What is the urgency?"

The bench granted the state government and the Vokkaliga and Lingayat communities time to file their responses and directed listing the case on Tuesday.

The court was hearing petitions filed by Anjuman E Islam and Ghulam Rasool, who had sought quashing of the GO. For the petitioners, senior advocate Dushyant Dave said the order was passed just two days before announcement of the state elections. "How can a government make a statement that empirical data was not available?" he asked.

Senior advocate Kapil Sibal said, "For 23 years I've been backward. Can it ever be that I fall into the general category without any empirical data? It is contrary to Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution."

Opposing the petitioners, Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, appearing for the Karnataka government, said: "Muslims who are OBCs are already getting reservation. Constitution does not permit religion-based reservation."

For the dominant communities, senior advocate Mukul Rohatgi said that the GO shouldn't be stayed without hearing the community.

Enforcement Directorate books BBC for 'intentional' FEMA violations

AMIT MUKHEJEE @ New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) has summoned several staff members of BBC India, including senior executives, after the agency registered a case under FEMA against the British news broadcaster's Indian entity for alleged foreign exchange violations.

According to ED sources, the BBC group was aware of the FDI rules in India, yet it flouted them. "More details of funds remitted by the BBC group companies had been sought from the companies to examine the probable FEMA violations," officials said, adding: "So far, statements of 10 employees have been recorded in which two are ex-directors and one is current director."

The BBC is running two entities in India — BBC World Service India Pvt Ltd and BBC Global News India Pvt Ltd, both of which are 100% owned by BBC Group UK.

According to the ED, BBC UK holds 1,55,17,499 shares in BBC World Service India, while one share is held by BBC Global News, UK. In BBC Global News India, BBC Global News UK holds 9,99,847 equity shares, while BBC World Distribution, UK holds one. In this Indian entity, BBC Global News UK also holds 43,49,457 preference shares.

India had in September 2019 capped FDI in digital media entities at 26%. However, the BBC "intentionally avoided taking any action regarding the FDI rules", said ED sources.

Rebellion continues in BJP amid firefighting

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

MANY senior BJP leaders have raised the banner of revolt, especially after the announcement of the second list of candidates for the May 10 Assembly elections.

On Thursday, several leaders, including MLAs and members of local bodies resigned from the party and openly expressed displeasure against the leadership for not giving them an opportunity to contest the elections.

Mudigere MLA MP Kumaraswamy has resigned and Haveri MLA Nehru Olekar has announced that he will quit. The party leadership gave tickets to Deepak Doddaiah ignoring Kumaraswamy and to Gavisiddappa Dyamannavar in place of Olekar. Nine BJP councillors from Shivamogga City Corporation, all followers of senior BJP leader KS Eshwarappa, resigned accusing the party of double standards.

Former deputy chief minister Lakshman Savadi announced that he will quit BJP on Friday. Hosadurga MLA Goolihatti Shekar may also resign soon. He is likely to join Gali Janardhan Reddy's new party. NR Santosh, a ticket aspirant from Arsikere in Hassan district and a relative of former CM BS Yediyurappa, is likely to resign on Friday. His followers staged a protest against the party on Thursday. On Wednesday, MLC R Nagesh resigned from the party and council membership

Complaining about the manner in which the ticket aspirants were treated by the BJP leadership, a leader said, "When Yediyurappa was at the helm of affairs, he used to personally call and speak to leaders and workers. He used to talk to all and ensure that they work for the party. That is not the case now."

BJP national general secretary in-charge of Karnataka Arun Singh told The New Indian Express that four to five aspirants had applied for ticket from each constituency. "If they fail to get tickets, their followers will also get upset. The party expected it. In BJP, we all work as per its ideology. Of the 212 candidates announced so far, 66 are new faces. Our idea is to give a chance to new faces and also respect elders," he said. MORE REPORTS: P6

NEHRU OLEKAR TO QUIT PARTY

Disappointed over not getting BJP ticket, Haveri MLA Nehru Olekar on Thursday said he will quit the party and blamed CM Basavaraj Bommai for it. He levelled serious corruption charges against Bommai. BJP's ST Somashekhar files his nomination in Bengaluru on Thursday

FIR against Somashekhar for hosting biryani feast

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THERE is nothing wrong in inviting people to have a delicious biryani. But if you are a politician busy campaigning for elections, that can amount to a violation of the model code of conduct. ST Somashekhar, Cooperation Minister and BJP candidate for Yeshwanthpur constituency in Bengaluru has landed in trouble for inviting his voters for a biryani feast.

The election authorities have registered an FIR against the minister for requesting people to have lunch during his electioneering. The Election Commission took note of the "offence" after a complaint by Janata Dal Secular party.

Somashekhar was campaigning near Kabbalamma temple at Doddipalya in Kengeri hobli on April 9. He addressed a gathering there and when he was about to end his speech, his followers requested him to announce that lunch is ready for the participants. Somashekhar agreed and announced, "It's already late for lunch and the food is ready. That too biryani. All please have it." Based on a video footage of his statement, AP Ranganath, president of the state legal cell of JDS, filed a complaint with the chief electoral officer that Somashekhar had violated the model code of conduct by hosting a biryani feast to lure voters. Based on the video footage, Prakash CP, an official of the flying surveillance team, filed a complaint with Kaggalipura police, who registered an FIR against Somashekhar on Wednesday.

Miscreants open fire at Madikeri VHP activist

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Madikeri

MISCREANTS opened fire at VHP activist P Krishnamurthy in Madikeri on Wednesday night. However, he had a narrow escape. The bullet missed him by inches.

According to a complaint filed by Murthy, who is an advocate fighting several cases filed against Hindutva activists, he left his office in the town on Wednesday evening and visited fellow advocate BU Cariappa at Chettalli around 7 pm. They then left for Kushalnagar to meet VHP worker Vinu and Bajrang Dal worker Shivaswami.

They all had dinner at a restaurant in Kushalnagar, and Krishnamurthy and Cariappa left for Chettalli. They reached Chettalli around 9.50 pm and Krishnamurthy dropped Cariappa at Ponnathmotte. Krishnamurthy then proceeded towards Madikeri via Chettalli.

"Around 11.05 pm, I reached Abbyala when I heard a gunshot. The glasses of my window on the left shattered even as a bullet damaged the left door. I sped away and did not stop anywhere," he said. He filed a complaint after reaching Madikeri. He alleged that someone opened fire at him.

Meanwhile, Bar association members condemned the attack on advocate Krishnamurthy and demanded that the police arrest the accused at the earliest. Police sources said that preliminary investigations revealed that it was indeed a gunshot.

Atiq's son killed in police encounter

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE Special Task Force of Uttar Pradesh police on Thursday gunned down gangster-turned-politician Atiq Ahmad's son Asad and his close aide and sharp shooter Mohammed Ghulam during an encounter near Parichha Dam under Badagaon police station area on Jhansi-Babina road.

Asad and Ghulam were wanted in the sensational Umesh Pal murder case and were carrying a reward of ₹5 lakh each. They had been absconding after Umesh Pal — a prime witness in the 2005 murder of BSP MLA Raju Pal — was killed in front of his house in Prayagraj on February 24 this year.

Atique is also an accused in the Umesh Pal murder case.

According to special DG (land and order) Prashant Kumar, there were intelligence inputs that Asad and his accomplices could attack the police convoy escorting Atiq from Sabarmati Jail in Gujarat to Prayagraj court to help the don-politician escape. He said Asad and Ghulam opened fire at the STF team when it intercepted the duo in the forest area between Babina and Jhansi, and the policemen returned fire. "Sophisticated foreign-made weapons, including a .455 bore British Bulldog revolver and a 7.63 bore Walther P88 pistol, were recovered from the possession of Asad and his accomplice," Kumar said.

Atiq and his brother Ashraf were brought to Prayagraj in connection with the Umesh Pal murder case probe. Both have been sent to UP police custody till Monday.

Meanwhile, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav termed it a 'fake encounter' alleging the BJP does not believe in courts at all. BSP supremo Mayawati demanded a probe.

Unity talks pick up pace in Oppn camp

PREETHA NAIR & PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

EFFORTS to solidify Opposition unity gathered pace on Thursday with Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar calling on Left leaders Sitaram Yechury and D Raja while NCP founder Sharad Pawar met Congress leaders Mallikarjun Kharge and Rahul Gandhi.

"We are glad Sharad Pawar came directly from Mumbai to give us guidance. Pawar is also of the opinion that we should all talk and come together to fight for the country. Yesterday all of us, including Nitish, Rahul and Tejashwi, decided to fight together to save democracy and freedom of speech in the country," Kharge said after the meeting.

Echoing Kharge, Pawar said, "Some political parties have different ideologies. But we will have to make efforts to bring them together. We haven't yet spoken to important leaders like Mamata Banerjee. We have to speak to them also. We have to bring all of them together and take the unity process forward."

Sitaram Yechury

After talks with Nitish, CPM general secretary Yechury said, "Dialogues with other parties are going on. The process has picked up pace." He added that seat adjustments would be made at the state level. For example, strategy that works in Kerala where the Left is in direct contest with the Congress, would not be applicable elsewhere.

Yechury ducked queries on the prime ministerial candidate, saying, "the united face of the Opposition will be discussed and decided at the right time".

Nitish also met Hindustani Awam Morcha chief Jitan Ram Manjhi in Delhi.

'JOIN JDS, TEACH BJP A LESSON'

NR Ramesh's supporters urge him to contest from two seats after being denied ticket

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

AMID wrangling among disgruntled aspirants after BJP released two lists of candidates, supporters of saffron party leader NR Ramesh, who was denied a ticket from Jayanagar Assembly constituency, have insisted he join JDS, and contest from both Padmanabhanagar and Jayanagar constituencies.

Talking to media persons on Thursday, president of Yediyur Ward Nagarikara Vedike, a citizens' forum, Anil Kumar, said that supporters want Ramesh to join JDS and contest from two seats, and teach BJP candidates of both the constituencies a lesson. "Ramesh has worked tirelessly over the last 24 years for BJP, and has played an important role in lifting the party to the highest level. It is because he has exposed hundreds of huge scams and corruption during the Congress dispensation that BJP is flying high in the state," said Kumar.

BJP, which projects itself as a party of the highly-educated, has given tickets to candidates who have been involved in government land grabbing and criminal cases, he said. Supporters have also alleged that Padmanabhanagar MLA and Revenue Minister R Ashoka has a secret pact with Congress leaders like NA Haris and others, and therefore, party workers are in fear in Assembly constituencies like Chamarajpet, BMT Layout and others. Ramesh, who was visibly upset, is yet to react over ticket distribution.

BJP supporters harassed our members: AAP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

MEMBERS of the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) alleged that they were threatened and abused by BJP workers and supporters in CV Raman Nagar on Thursday, during the election campaign of a ruling party MLA.

According to Bhavya Narayana, an AAP volunteer from RR Nagar, a few of her party volunteers had reached Suddaguntepalya in CV Raman Nagar on Thursday to campaign for their candidate. However, at 12 pm, they were approached by some BJP supporters who picked up a quarrel with them and threatened them, she alleged.

"We came to campaign for our candidate, Mohan Dasari. Seeing us campaign, some BJP supporters picked up a quarrel with us and asked us to leave the place, stating that the MLA had given everything. They abused and almost heckled us," Bhavya alleged. A complaint in this regard has been filed at Jeevan Bima Nagar police station against two persons -- Mohan and Nagaraj -- who are claimed to be BJP supporters.

Meanwhile, Manoj Kumar and Shivakumar, who belong to the AAP, alleged that they were insulted by BJP supporters as well, and when they tried to film the latter, their mobile phones were snatched, only to be returned later.

However, the BJP workers said the MLA had given clear directions to his supporters not to be intimidated by the Opposition.

'Lingayat assertion' as Gangambike files nomination on opening day

BANSY KALAPPA @Bengaluru

WITH Lingayats demanding a seat in the city, former mayor Gangambike Mallikarjun, a Lingayat, in an unprecedented 'statement of assertion' filed her nomination on the opening day on Thursday. Veerashaiva Mahasabha and Lingayat leaders within the Congress including campaign committee chief MB Patil and working president Eshwar Khandre are batting in her favour. They recalled her achievements as a mayor in dealing with plastic waste and banning it.

The Congress panel had proposed two names for Chickpet constituency: former MLA R V Devaraj and Gangambike Mallikarjun. Since Chickpet has not been declared, the field is open.

Veerashaiva Mahasabha secretary, Renuka Prasanna, said, "There are over 15 lakh members of the community across 28 seats in the city. We are hopeful that the party will consider Gangambike Mallikarjun's candidature favourably."

After former deputy mayor BS Puttaraju, a Lingayat, was edged out, the Lingayats had rallied around him to express their disappointment.

Reacting to her filing nomination, KPCC president DK Shivakumar told TNIE, "She is a loyal party worker. If she is not considered for final candidature, we may have to ask her to withdraw her nomination."

Greenpeace India submits 20-point manifesto to parties

Bengaluru : Urging political parties to address issues of mobility and nutritional diversity, Greenpeace India, an NGO, submitted a 20-point manifesto to the parties, which includes revival of bus priority lane along the ORR, focusing on improving public transport, and building a more resilient food system. Emphasising on improving public transport and promoting cycling and walking to reduce congestion and pollution in Bengaluru is also in the manifesto, the team said. Amruta SN, Greenpeace India Campaigner, said, "Building more flyovers, roads and elevated corridors will encourage more private vehicles, ignoring mass transport." They said that prioritising allocation of funds and making policies towards sustainable modes of transport must be on every political party's agenda. Regarding climate change, a problem that governments globally are battling, Greenpeace recommended a more resilient food system. Government should give incentives to farmers to encourage them to grow climate-resilient millets, and proposed that entitlement be hiked from Rs 10,000 per hectare to Rs 25,000 per hectare for millets.

KHADER HOLDS FORT IN HINDUTVA HEARTLAND

VINCENT D'SOUZA @Mangaluru

Coastal Karnataka is BJP's stronghold, but the Mangaluru constituency (previously called Ullal) is a tough nut to crack for them. In the last three decades, BJP has won the constituency just once when K Jayarama Shetty was elected in 1994. In 2018, BJP won seven out of eight seats in Dakshina Kannada, but not Mangaluru. The constituency located on the Kerala border and dominated by Muslims has elected UT Khader in the last four elections. His father UT Fareed had represented the segment four times between 1972 and 2007. In the by-poll necessitated after his death in 2007, Khader entered the fray and since then has never looked back and has been winning continuously with a good margin.

It was a direct fight between Congress and BJP in the last many elections, but the scenario has become more dynamic this time with SDPI throwing its hat into the ring. However, this time too, Khader appears to be on a formidable position and many political pundits predict that the fight is between BJP and SDPI for the second place.

Whether he is in the ruling party or opposition, Khader is popular among his electorate as a man who brings development to the constituency. Harekala bridge -cum-barrage which significantly reduces the travel time between Mangaluru and Harekala, four-laning of Thokottu-Mudipu road that connects several educational institutions and hospitals, among others have made a big impact in the constituency.

SDPI, which has fielded Riyaz Farangipete, is trying to woo the Muslims by accusing Khader of failing to protect the interests of the community when the hijab controversy erupted and when Muslims were arrested in 'fake' cases. On the other hand, BJP and Sangh Parivar which tried to brand Ullal as 'Mini Pakistan' during the last election, are now appealing to people to elect a 'Hindu MLA'. BJP candidate Santosh Kumar Rai Boliyar lost to Khader by a margin of more than 19,000 votes in the last election. This time the BJP has field Satish Kumpala, a Billava, against him. The constituency has majority Muslim voters, followed by Christians, Billavas, Bunts and Dalits.

There was a buzz that BJP is planning to field a strong Hindutva leader against Khader. But according to sources, no popular leader is ready to take the risk as they think that chances of victory are very slim. Khader is popular among masses and has built a good rapport with people of all faiths. He hardly misses any religious event organised by Hindus and Christians and has also helps them get government funds. He is accessible to voters and has maintained an image as a clean politician. His good work as a minister in Siddaramaiah and HD Kumaraswamy governments handling Health and Family Welfare, Food and Civil Supplies are still remembered by people here. All these factors are likely to help him in the election.

A signboard at Cubbon Park warns of penalty for unseemly behaviour. The Horticulture department secretary confirmed there is no new order | NAGARAJA GADEKAL

What's behind the bushes in Cubbon Park? Snakes, say officials

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

IT BECAME a classic case of "we hear what we want to hear". Citizens heard "Do not play in the park, do not sit behind bushes or in corners, and do not carry food" as part of strictures imposed by horticulture department officials, marshals and security personnel for Cubbon Park visitors, drawing the ire of netizens.

"Citizens should not play games as lawns and sprinklers are getting damaged. They should not sit in corners and behind bushes due to snakes, and we request citizens not to carry food and litter the place as garbage and plastic attract rats and snakes," said Balakrishna HT, deputy director, horticulture department, Cubbon Park.

Another senior official pointed out that during an inspection, many walkers complained of public display of affection. "Citizens said PDA was making them uncomfortable, especially when they were with children. Then, the security guards requested people to behave decently. Moral policing is not our job," said the official. Horticulture department secretary Rajendra Kumar Kataria confirmed that there are no new directions or guidelines.

With many netizens slamming the department for banning photography, Balakrishna said, "Professional photo and video shoots have been banned for over a decade. Many birdwatchers and ornithologists pointed out that using flash was impacting the fauna. Citizens still use cameras and mobile phones," he said. Residents, however, said they have no problems with PDA at Cubbon Park, but couples should be careful that they don't make others uncomfortable. Murli Vijay, a resident of Ulsoor, said people must follow a basic code of conduct in public spaces.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

14th April: I am fascinated by the fact that, in some places, such as Myanmar, today counts as two days. The reason is that they have an extra 'planet' - the spot in the sky where the Moon's path crosses the Sun's. It's represented by a dragon, and is said to rule the whole of today after noon. So there you go - there are indeed eight days in the week!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
You may feel exploited or taken for granted, but this is not really the point. The fact is that this is a positive moment for putting yourself out on behalf of others, even if you think they don't deserve it. Get things into perspective - and put your feelings in their place!

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
All artistic and creative types are favoured by today's compassionate Moon. If you don't think that you fall into this bracket, you can still do your best to be spontaneous and develop those unique and wonderful gifts that you have always ignored.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
It's time to go back to first principles and start from scratch. This does mean dealing with left-over family questions, as well as all those lingering practical domestic chores. But it's also important to have a vision of the future, just to put everything into context.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
You have done extremely well in many respects, but there is still some way further to go. Over the next few days, you may gather fresh information, discuss your plans and re-arrange some of your long-held opinions about what is right and what is wrong.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
There seems to be some sort of power struggle going on, and superficial causes of disagreement, such as money, could be nothing more than a distraction. If your personal plans and ideas become the centre of attention, you may concede that you might just be wrong for a change!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
There's a wonderful world waiting just around the corner - in your dreams! Today's bold lunar alignments encourage flights of fancy. If you're ready, then you may set your imagination free, leave daily concerns to take care of themselves, and focus on what could be, instead of being weighed down by what is.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Forget all petty concerns and trivial details. If you can see beyond surface appearances, you'll glimpse the timeless reality concealed behind the daily facade. You should listen to your imagination and follow your dreams. You don't know where they'll lead, but you'll never find out unless you look!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
Social life could be taking a turn for the better, and your romantic hopes should be high. Do be aware, though, of the risks of over-committing yourself financially, and only make promises you know you can fulfil. Give yourself a way out until you're absolutely sure.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
You should find that other people are much better able to take care of themselves, which means that you can concentrate on long-term ambitions. It's time to shape up to new responsibilities, particularly if you have some favours to return.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
Today's super stars hold out superb prospects for all Capricorns planning to start a new course of study, fight a legal battle or travel overseas. In all matters it is necessary to seize the moral high ground. Plus, there's a chance that what is good for you may be even better for others.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
The time looks right for taking a treasured relationship one stage deeper, entering a new level of intensity. It also happens to be an ideal moment for making extraordinarily profitable investments, so keep a look-out for passing opportunities.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
You really must shape up to the truth in relationships, such as it is. The problem lies in distinguishing the way people really are from the way you would like them to be. In the meantime, take your pleasures where you can, and appreciate people's strengths instead of drawing attention to their weaknesses.

Covid test target now at 20,000 samples a day

Active cases in state at 1,498, data shows

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Health Department has increased the daily Covid testing target to 20,000 across the state. The average number of samples tested until now is 7,729.

A circular issued on April 11 by the health department stated that along with increased testing, all persons in contact with an infected person, in household and office, are to be compulsorily tested. All people found to be symptomatic during interstate and international travels also have to get tested.

The health department has directed that district-wise examination be conducted everyday, and steps be taken towards sending samples to district laboratories.

With a gradual rise in Covid cases, several states/Union Territories have increased testing and made masks mandatory. Karnataka, on the other hand, has not yet planned to enforce mandatory wearing of masks.

Experts attributed the XBB 1.16 variant to be the reason for the spike in cases which, however, is not harmful, as the recovery rate is much higher, with patients recovering within 4-5 days after getting infected. The Influenza-like Infections (ILI) and Severe Acute Respiratory Infections (SARI), mainly H1N1 (Swine Flu) and H3N2 virus, with Covid were a major reason for the rise in hospital admissions in the past two months. Doctors have stated that most of the deaths were because of comorbidities. Since April 1, nine deaths have been reported due to Covid, in which all patients were either extremely young or old, and had either SARI-related symptoms or suffered from comorbidities. Doctors said that the Covid advisory has already been issued and no new guidelines are required at the moment. If people follow the Covid Appropriate Behaviour (CAB) and ensure that they use masks, the situation will not worsen in the coming months.

Meanwhile, according to the health department, as on April 13, the active cases in Karnataka stood at 1,498.

CIRCULAR TO HOSPITALS ON MEDICAL INSURANCE SCHEME

The Karnataka Health Department has issued a circular regarding the inclusion of all government and private hospitals in the state medical insurance scheme. They have directed all hospitals to submit a monthly report stating the cause of death for all such occurrences in the health institutions (all institutional and non-institutional deaths). Such measures are being taken to improve decision-making for health researchers, while making policies to benefit everyone equally.

MAN SAYS 'ABUSED' FOR BEING BIHARI, PROBE ON

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

AFTER a video of a man, purportedly from Muzaffarpur in Bihar, accusing three people in Rajajinagar of abusing and harassing him as he did not speak Kannada went viral, North Division DCP said that an enquiry has been launched.

Recounting an incident on April 7, Nitish Kumar Yadav, a worker at an eatery, alleged that three people had come to his eatery in Rajajinagar and abused him for being a Bihari.

Posting the video from his hometown, the man is heard abusing the customers for allegedly mistreating Hindi-speakers in Bengaluru.

The video has sparked a debate on the language issue on social media between pro-Kannada and pro-Hindi groups.

However, a preliminary enquiry by Subramanyanagar police revealed that an argument ensued over stale food and a torn currency note, instead of language.

Meanwhile, pro-Kannada activists are incensed at Yadav for using profanities, and have filed a complaint against him with the Subramanyanagar police station.

City Police Commissioner Pratap Reddy said that they are trying to gather more information on Yadav. It appears, prima facie, that an argument broke out between the man and the customers in the eatery. However, there is no clarity on the three customers - two women and a man -- who are seen in the video posted by Yadav. "The person was working at a food joint near Mahalakshmi Metro Station. Neither him nor his employer has filed any complaint. We found out that the women had ordered puliyogare. They did not like it, and asked it to be changed, which he refused. They gave him a torn currency note, and he refused to accept it, which led to an argument. Yadav does not know Kannada, and the women don't speak or understand Hindi," said an officer.

"A team from the North police division has contacted the person who had posted the video. An enquiry has been launched. In such situations, dial 112. Social media is not the platform for such issues. Allow the police to act first," Reddy appealed.

Three history-sheeters arrested

ENS @ Bengaluru

OFFICERS of the Central Crime Branch (CCB) have arrested three history-sheeters and recovered 2 kg of gold jewellery worth around Rs 1 crore. All the three accused, Jayanthi (22) from Tamil Nadu; Amjad Singh (36) from Bengaluru; and Mujubai (32) from Gujarat, have been arrested in different cases and are not associates. Among the accused, Jayanthi, who was arrested for theft in 2016 in Hebbal, RT Nagar and Banaswadi, was also nabbed by the Tamil Nadu police for a similar offence.

Singh was arrested by the Bagalur police in 2012 in a double-murder case. After serving time, he started breaking into houses and was later arrested by the Magadi Road police in 2018 in a dacoity case.

Mujubai, who formed a gang, used to travel to the city by train and explore different areas in search of locked houses to steal from and sell the booty in his hometown. Further investigations are on.

Nimhans takes mental healthcare to taluks in K'taka, Uttarakhand

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

IN a move to reach mental healthcare services to rural areas, the National Institute of Mental Health and Neurosciences (Nimhans) and Ashraya Hastha Trust (AHT) signed an MoU to implement a model comprehensive rural mental health programme NAMAN (Nimhans-AHT Comprehensive Mental-Health Action Program for Rural Communities) in two taluks to test the feasibility of the programme.

The two taluks are Munsiyari in Pithoragarh district of Uttarakhand, and Belur in Hassan district.

NAMAN envisions the delivery of promotive (multi-pronged approach to promote mental health in the general public); preventive (engaging with vulnerable populations to prevent mental illnesses, including addiction to substances and gadgets); therapeutic (providing comprehensive interventions and appropriate referrals for those with mental illnesses); and rehabilitative (offering comprehensive rehabilitation services including disability assessment and benefits to persons living with mental health conditions) care in Munsiyari and Belur.

The pilot mental healthcare programme will be implemented over three years in four phases, which include resource building, situational analysis, intervention and evaluation.

Nimhans will develop and implement the overall road map of the programme. The All India Institute of Medical Sciences (AIIMS), Rishikesh, will collaborate with Nimhans to deliver the programme in Uttarakhand. The governments of Karnataka and Uttarakhand will be the implementation partners.

OLEKAR TO QUIT BJP, BLAMES BOMMAI FOR NOT GETTING TICKET

The Haveri MLA says 40% commission allegation has tarnished the image of BJP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Haveri

DISAPPOINTED over not getting BJP ticket, Haveri MLA Nehru Olekar on Thursday announced that he will quit the party and blamed Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai for the same. He levelled serious corruption charges against Bommai. In the second list released on Wednesday, the party announced the candidature of Gavisiddappa Dyamannavar for Haveri (SC) constituency, which is represented by Olekar in the Assembly.

Olekar and his two sons have been convicted in a corruption case by the special court for cases involving elected representatives and sentenced to two years' imprisonment. In view of this, the party might have denied ticket to him.

A visibly disturbed Olekar held Bommai responsible for denial of ticket to him and charged that the CM favoured a person close to him. Stating that the party has done injustice to him, he announced that he will resign from its primary membership.

> Let Olekar produce evidence to prove the charges. There is no point in making mere statements
> Basavaraj Bommai, CM

Olekar said the 40% commission allegation has tarnished the image of BJP. Alleging that the chief minister concentrated only on his Shiggaon constituency, Olekar said an irrigation project, implemented there at a cost of Rs 1,500 crore, has failed to serve its purpose. Olekar alleged that the biggest achievement of the BJP government is corruption. "I have records to show Bommai's involvement in corruption and will soon make them public," he said.

A DAY OF REBELLION...

MUDIGERE MLA KUMARASWAMY BLAMES RAVI

CHIKKAMAGALURU: Mudigere Member of Legislative Aseembly MP Kumaraswamy has resigned from the BJP after he was denied the party ticket. He accused MLA CT Ravi of having a role in the party denying him a ticket. In the BJP's second list announced late on Wednesday, Deepak Doddaiah was given the ticket. Following this, Kumaraswamy resigned from the primary membership of BJP and sent his resignation letter to BJP state president and Dakshina Kannada MP Nalin Kumar Kateel. Kumaraswamy accused Ravi of using his power as the BJP national general secretary to conspire against him and added that he will destabilise the party. Reacting to Kumaraswamy's allegations, Ravi said that it is natural for him to be blamed for it as he is in the helm of affairs. As Janata Dal (Secular) leaders are in touch with Kumaraswamy, there are murmurs in political corrdiors that he could be fielded by the JDS. ENS

'INJUSTICE', SAYS EX-MINISTER NAIK AFTER NOT GETTING TICKET FROM HUKKERI

Belagavi: Former BJP minister Shashikant Naik on Thursday said that he will resign from primary membership of the party as he was denied ticket to contest from Hukkeri. The BJP has fielded Nikhil Katti, son of former minister late Umesh Katti, from Hukkeri. "The party, which was limited only to Belagavi city, gained a foothold in every village of the district because of me and former Union minister late Babagouda Patil. But, I have been neglected by the party. I am fed up with the torture of the Katti family and hence I have decided to resign from BJP," he told reporters. He said BJP has given tickets to those who betrayed the party. "I have held various posts in BJP for the last 20 years. I was also district minister. I also helped in organising winter session of the legislature in Belagavi for the first time. After Umesh Katti's death, I had even requested BS Yediyurappa for the ticket. But, the party high command has meted out injustice to me," he rued.

NR SANTOSH'S SUPPORTERS PROTEST

Arasikere: The followers of Arsikere BJP ticket aspirant NR Santosh set BJP flags and party banners on fire after the party denied him a ticket. The protesters also raised slogans against former CM BS Yediyurappa and BY Vijayendra. Later, Santosh held a meeting with his followers and decided to contest as an independent. He will file his papers on April 17. Speaking to TNIE, Santosh said that he has been touring the constituency and also strengthening the party for the last couple of years following the party's directives. ENS

EVERY PARTY HAS BETRAYED ME, SAYS MUDDAHANUME GOWDA

BENGALURU: It's been a period of upheaval for S P Muddahanume Gowda (68) who says he was betrayed by all three major political parties in a career spanning over three decades. The former Congress MP from Tumakuru switched to BJP, seeking the Kunigal ticket for the upcoming polls, but the party chose D Krishnakumar, who has lost thrice. Now, Gowda is likely to quit the BJP and contest as an independent. "All the parties have betrayed me, and I will go to the people's court," said the former judge. His career started with betrayal in 1989 when the Congress gave the Kunigal ticket to K Lakkappa. In 1994 and 1999, he was elected MLA but lost the seat in 2004. In 2008, the Congress denied him the ticket. Gowda switched to the JDS and unsuccessfully contested the 2009 LS polls. In 2013, he filed his papers from Kunigal, but the party fielded D Nagarajaiah. He was brought out of political oblivion by former DyCM Dr G Parame-shwara, who ensured his win as Lok Sabha MP from Tumakuru in 2014. But in 2019, Congress and JDS declared ex-PM HD Deve Gowda as a consensus candidate. ENS

Fire breaks out at helipad, CM's chopper lands safely

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Udupi

A small fire was noticed close to the Areshiroor helipad, near Byndoor in Udupi district, when Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's helicopter was landing on Thursday. Fire and Emergency Services personnel present at the helipad put it off immediately.

Bommai's copter landed on the helipad at Areshiroor, from Mangaluru, on his way to Sri Mookambika temple in Kollur. Udupi District Fire and Emergency Services Officer Vasantha Kumar said the fire was seen at about 100 metres from the helipad at 11.30 am. Dry grass nearby had caught fire reportedly from sparks originating from a smoke canister.

He added that the copter landed safely and took off again from the helipad around 12.10 pm, after Bommai returned from the temple.

CM, Rishab Shetty meet

Actor Rishab Shetty of 'Kantara' fame met Bommai at the temple, since he was present there at that time. Speaking to reporters, Bommai termed their meeting as a coincidence.

He also said that the party did not take any risks or experimented with regard to its candidate selection this time, but rather went by an internal survey report. Bommai said there is no need for anybody to fight in electoral politics, but one needs the support of the people. ''I hope the voters will support our candidates,'' he said.

CM: Dissidence will end soon, Savadi shouldn't act in haste

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mangaluru

AT a time when several top leaders of the state BJP are quitting the party after being denied the party ticket, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Thursday said senior party leaders and the top brass are in talks with the "disgruntled" leaders.

Speaking to reporters before leaving for Kollur Mookambika Temple as part of marathon temple visits in the coastal districts, the CM said that the dissidence in the BJP will end soon.

On BJP leaders switching to Congress and other parties, Bommai said that changing parties has become common in politics, especially when elections approach. "Dissatisfied leaders are being convinced to remain in the party. The party and the workers are strong due to which there will not be much damage because of rebellion," he elaborated.

On BJP MLC Laxman Savadi planning to resign from party and as an MLC, Bommai — who visited Kateel Durgaparameshwari Temple on Thursday afternoon — said that Savadi is a senior party leader and has been in politics for a long time and he has the responsibility to retain the faith of the people of his constituency. "I understand that it is painful... but Savadi should not have taken such a decision in haste. We need to be patient when such incidents occur in life. All I can say is he (Savadi) has a bright future in the BJP," Bommai said.

Bommai further predicted that the Congress will not come to power and it does not have efficient candidates in nearly 60 to 65 constituencies.

Savadi to sever ties with BJP today, showers praises on Siddaramaiah

NAUSHAD BIJAPUR @ Belagavi

BJP MLC and former deputy chief minister Laxman Savadi on Thursday said that he will resign from the membership of the Legislative Council and the party in Bengaluru on Friday.

He made this announcement at a meeting with his supporters in Athani on Thursday. At the meeting, his supporters in thousands suggested that he join the Congress and contest the May 10 Assembly elections. The BJP has fielded Mahesh Kumathalli from Athani, and the Congress is yet to announce its candidate.

On Thursday evening, Savadi announced that he would be resigning as a BJP member and MLC in Bengaluru on Friday.

Savadi did not confirm if he would join the Congress, but said former CM Siddaramaiah helped him win the MLC polls despite the conspiracies hatched by BJP leaders.

"Despite being the leader of opposition, Siddaramaiah alerted me about the conspiracies hatched by the BJP leaders to defeat me. Siddaramaiah ensured that none of his party members created any hurdle in ensuring my victory," he recalled. On his next move, Savadi said he would meet leaders of various parties (Congress and JDS) in Bengaluru on Friday and take a call on which party to join.

Upset over treatment meted out to him by the BJP during his stint in the party, he said, former CM BS Yediyurappa had promised him the party ticket while requesting him to ensure the victory of party candidate Kumathalli in the last Assembly polls. "I have suffered extreme torture from the BJP leadership during my stay in the party," he claimed.

He said the BJP leadership insulted him during the mega conventions held at Basavakalyana and Davanagere in recent times.

Earlier in the day, several BJP leaders met Savadi in Athani in a last-minute attempt to prevent him from quitting the party. But Savadi's supporters sent them away. A group of Savadi's supporters reportedly manhandled a BJP leader from Athani, Rajesh Nerli, when he arrived at the MLC's residence to console him.

According to the sources, Savadi is expected to meet Siddaramaiah, KPCC chief DK Shivakumar and other leaders of the Congress at the KPCC office in Bengaluru on Friday soon after quitting the BJP.

Besides giving him a party ticket from Athani, the Congress is said to have decided to give him a prominent position in the party, informed sources added.

Siddu, Somanna gird up for Varuna battle

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

POLITICAL activities have gained momentum in the high-profile Varuna constituency in Mysuru district where Congress Legislature Party (CLP) leader and former chief minister Siddaramaiah will take on Housing Minister V Somanna of the BJP. In a surprise move, the BJP fielded Somanna, a strong Lingayat leader, from Varuna, setting stage for a high-octane electoral contest.

The two leaders visited mutts and also their respective party leaders on Thursday.

Somanna offered puja to the presiding deity Chamundeshwari atop the Chamundi Hills and later called on veteran BJP leader and Chamarajanagar MP Srinivasa Prasad. Srinivasa Prasad is considered an arch-rival of Siddaramaiah. It is learnt that Somanna and Srinivasa Prasad discussed what strategies to adopt to win the constituency. Somanna also called on JSS Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji and sought his blessings. Later, the minister also held meetings with prominent party leaders from Varuna. "I have decided to file my nomination on April 17. I will meet BS Yediyurappa and invite him to accompany me," he added. Somanna also said that he would start campaigning from Karya village. "It does not matter who is contesting against me," he said.

Meanwhile, speaking to reporters after collecting B form from the BJP office here, Somanna said that the welfare programmes of the double-engine State and Union governments have reached the people. "The Sadashiva Commission report on internal reservation remained only on papers for decades... It saw the light of the day during the Bommai's government," he said. "The people of Bengaluru made me grow — from a party worker to a minister. I am confident that the voters of Varuna and Chamarajanagar will also extend the same support," he added. Responding to a question, Somanna said he had never told or suggested to not give the ticket to BY Vijayendra from Varuna. "Even if he comes now I will put a red carpet and welcome him," he said.

Meanwhile, Congress CM aspirant Siddaramaiah launched his campaign from Chamundeshwari. "I will win with people's support. Let Somanna or anybody contest against me... Money power cannot stop me from winning. I am not worried about the opponent as I have full faith in the people of Varuna," the former CM said.

Siddaramaiah said that his son Dr Yathindra has already completed campaigning in the constituency.

On his plans to contest from a second seat, Siddaramaiah said that the Congress high command will decide on his candidature from Kolar. "If allowed, I will contest from Kolar... else I will remain in Varuna and file my papers on April 19," Siddaramaiah added. A confident Siddaramaiah said that he will campaign in Varuna just for a day as he wants to campaign across Karnataka.

Siddaramaiah also held closed-door talks with Sri Shivarathri Deshikendra Swamiji.

SOMANNA FACES 'COCONUT' CHALLENGE

Housing Minister V Somanna was caught in an embarrassing situation on Thursday when he tried to break a coconut after praying at Sri Chamundeshwari temple atop the Chamundi hills. The coconut did not break. It is often considered that a coconut is supposed to protect a person from evil and breaking it is a major ritual while starting anything new. As the coconut did not break, people present there were heard discussing if it was a bad sign.

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI @ Kalaburagi

There was a rush of leaders, who were denied tickets by BJP and Congress in Kalaburagi and Yadgir districts, to meet former CM and JDS leader Kumaraswamy, who arrived here Wednesday evening.

Many leaders, including former BJP MLA Doddappagouda Patil Naribol, who defeated former CM late Dharam Singh in the 2008 elections and contested against Congress candidate Dr Ajay Singh in 2013 and 2018 elections, met him.

Followers of Congress leader Krishnaji Kulkarni of Kalaburagi, Dr A B Malakareddy of Yadgir and Guru Patil Shirval of Shahapur also met the JDS leader. Later, Kumaraswamy, who spoke to reporters, said once North Karnataka was the bastion of Janata Parivar, especially of JDS.

However, many leaders from the region quit JDS for reasons unknown. Now, they are rejoining JDS .

Kumaraswamy said that he can't reveal the names of the leaders who met him. The JDS will soon organise a "welcome function" to those who have quit BJP and Congress, in Bengaluru on Friday evening. The final list of the party's candidates will be announced on Friday evening or Saturday.

AS of today, the Centre is not interested in going ahead with the immediate strategic disinvestment of Visakhapatnam Steel Plant (VSP), Union Minister of State for Steel and Rural Development Faggan Singh Kulaste said on Thursday and added that the Central government wants to further strengthen RINL (Rashtriya Ispat Nigam Limited) and set up new units.

On the sidelines of 'Rozgar Mela' held in Visakhaptnam, the Union minister was questioned on the two-year agitation against the move to privatise VSP.

He said, the Plant was facing issues related to raw material supply and the Centre was trying to address the problem.

Asked about Telangana government's plans to participate in the Expression of Interest (EoI) to fund VSP's working capital or supply of raw material, Faggan Singh said it was within the State government's purview.

It may be recalled that the Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs (CCEA) on January 27, 2021 had approved the strategic disinvestment of RINL by way of 100 per cent privatisation, along with Government of India shareholding in its joint ventures and subsidiaries.

Meanwhile, soon after the announcement, a war of words erupted with the Bharat Rashtra Samithi (BRS) trying to take credit for the Centre's decision even as the YSRC and BJP were making light of the pink party's claims.

Speaking at a meeting in Hyderabad, Telangana Industries minister KT Rama Rao said it was because of BRS chief K Chandrasekhar Rao that the Centre changed its decision. "KCR's one word is enough for anyone to bend their knees," he remarked.

Further, KTR said they were considering submitting an Expression of Interest (EoI) to partner with RINL and fund its working capital or supply of raw material to prove the party's sincerity towards safeguarding Public Sector Undertakings (PSUs). "One announcement to submit the EoI made the Centre rollback its decision," the minister claimed.

Demanding the Centre to allocate captive mines to VSP, if it is sincere in running the Plant in profits, the minister asserted, "We will continue to exert pressure on the Centre till it completely reverses its decision to privatise VSP and also set up a steel plant at Bayyaram."

TDP leader files complaint against dog for tearing Andhra CM's sticker

Vijayawada: In a bizarre incident, a police complaint has been filed against a stray dog for tearing a sticker of Chief Minister Jagan Mohan Reddy, which was pasted on a wall on Wednesday night as part of the ruling YSRC's campaign Jagananna Maa Bhavisyathu. The complaint was filed by TDP Vijayawada Central woman leader Dasari Udayasree and other party cadre after the video of the dog tearing Jagan's sticker went viral on social media platforms. Speaking to the media after filing the complaint, TDP leader Udayasree said, "We respect Jagan. It is an insult and those who made the dog do this, should be punished." ENS

HC tells govt to build school in 4 months, says will not let right to edu become rope of sand

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

OBSERVING that the fundamental right to free and compulsory education for children guaranteed under Article 21-A of the constitution cannot be rendered illusory due to red tape, the Karnataka High Court on Thursday directed the Department of Public Instructions and local authorities of Mandya to identify land and build a new lower primary school at Agaralingana Doddi village within four months from June 1.

The court's direction came as it noted the plight of 25 children of the school which was built on land donated by villagers 35 years ago, but were made to study in a small room after their school was demolished for the widening of the Bengaluru-Mysuru Expressway in 2018.

"The officers of the state must remember that the right of every citizen matters and no child can be left behind. The issue before this court is not 'just one school', it is 'even one school!' This court will not permit the state to reduce the fundamental right of children to a 'mere rope of sand'", Justice M Nagaprasanna said.

Advocate MH Prakash, representing the petitioner – School Development Monitoring Committee (SDMC) -- told the court that the school is being run from a small room, where there are no benches, a place to cook and no washrooms, despite these being a mandatory requirement.

Despite the National Highways Authority of India awarding a compensation of Rs 66.95 lakh and the SDMC submitting many representations to the authorities from March 2020, no steps have been taken by the state. The authorities stated that the compensation amount should first come to the consolidated fund of the state and only then it will be released for the new school building, he argued.

The judge said, "The right to education under Article 21-A has become a mockery, not at the instance of any private players, but at the instance of officials of the state due to the malady of 'red-tapism'. (American social reformer) Frederick Douglass once wrote that it is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men. I would paraphrase it to the present scenario observing that it is necessary to build strong children, for which it is imperative to repair the broken will of the officials manning such offices".

The judge stressed his point with an anecdote. "In the island of Hokkaido in Japan, a girl used to go to school from a remote place. And just to pick her up and drop her after school, trains used to stop twice a day. The train station existed only for one school-going student and the trains are run at the state's cost. Therefore, officers here must remember that the right of every citizen matters and no child can be left behind," Justice Nagaprasanna said.

Four jumbos trapped in pond rescued

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Mangaluru

A herd of four wild elephants, which came in search of water and fell into a pond at Ajjavara village of Sullia taluk in Dakshina Kannada district on Wednesday night, were rescued by forest officials on Thursday.

The elephant herd consisting of two calves fell into the pond in an arecanut farm owned by Sanath Rai.

On noticing the animals, Sanath and other locals informed the forest officials and a rescue operation was started on Thursday morning.

Assistant Conservator of Forests Praveen, who led the rescue operation, suspected that one of the calves might have fallen into the pond and got trapped in the slush. "To rescue the calf, the elephants might have entered the pond, but failed to climb back up. Or the herd might have tried to quench thirst in the pond and got stuck," he said.

"We helped the elephants move out of the pond by breaking a portion of the pond's boundary using an earthmover. One of the elephants managed to climb outside the pond initially. Later, another adult elephant and a calf also moved out safely. However, one calf got stuck in the water and we rescued it later. We will reunite it with the herd," said Praveen.

Meanwhile, the locals demanded that the forest officials relocate the wild tuskers.

Malappuram temples set example with Iftar

VISHNUPRASAD K P @Malappuram

SETTING an example in communal harmony, two temples committees in Malappuram organised mass Iftar for Muslims during the holy month of Ramzan. Committees of the Sree Puthuveppu Manaliyarkavu Bhagavathi temple in Othalur and Chathangadu Sree Maha Vishnu Temple in Vaniyannur near Tirur hosted the feast on the premises of the respective temple grounds on on April 7 and March 28, respectively. Both the events saw mass participation of Muslim believers.

Mass iftar at Sree Puthuveppu Manaliyarkavu Bhagavathi Temple, Othalur, Malappuram

"It was an initiative taken by a group of youngsters in the area. Our aim is to strengthen the bond between people from the Hindu and Muslim communities. Religious harmony is important and we want to celebrate every festival together with peace and joy," said Krishnan Pavittapuram, secretary of the Sree Puthuveppu Manaliyarkavu Bhagavathi temple.

Dijith K, one of the youngsters behind the feast, said a person from the Muslim community had sponsored the annadanam (donation of food) during the temple's annual installation festival, which fell during Ramzan this year.

"However, he and others from the community could not attend the event themselves as it was held during the day. So, we arranged a mass Iftar for them in the evening," he said.

For the Chathangadu Sree Maha Vishnu Temple, this is the second Iftar they have hosted. "Like the previous year, people from the Muslim community could not attend the annadanam this year as our annual installation festival fell during the Ramzan month. So, we organised the mass Iftar a day after the annual festival. We will organize it next year if the date of the annual installation festival falls during Ramzan month," said Lakshmanan K K, temple committee secretary.

Panakkad Rasheed Ali Shihab Thangal, an IUML leader who attended the Iftar at Vaniyannur, appreciated the temple's move.

IKS to focus on Sanskrit texts, Indian math proofs

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

WITH the National Education Policy (NEP) laying emphasis on Indian Knowledge Systems (IKS), the University Grants Commission (UGC) has released guidelines for incorporating IKS into PG and UG courses, which may include a compulsory foundational course.

UGC released the 'Draft Guidelines for Incorporating Indian Knowledge Systems in Higher Education Curricula', wherein the commission invited comments and suggestions until April 30. UGC on Thursday also released 'Guidelines for Training/Orientation of Faculty on Indian Knowledge Systems'.

As per the notice issued by UGC, the guidelines will focus on spreading information of IKS for both 'research and societal applications'. "Integrating IKS within the existing educational framework will aid in preserving and disseminating Indian Knowledge Systems for further research and societal applications. The Universities / Institutions may prepare courses and programmes as per guidelines accordingly. This will help preserve India's ancient heritage by including it in academic courses and curricula," UGC stated.

Interestingly, a foundational course on IKS for undergraduate students may be implemented, as per the guidelines. "All the students should take a foundational course in Indian Knowledge Systems, which is designed to present an overall introduction to all streams of IKS relevant to the UG programme. The foundational IKS course should be broad-based and cover introductory material on all aspects," the guidelines stated. Students should be encouraged to take enough number of IKS courses, so that the total IKS credits are equal to at least 5 per cent of the total mandated credits.

The guidelines themselves focus on everything related to IKS, from Sanskrit texts to a focus on Ayurveda, as well as information on 'upapattis', or proofs in Indian mathematics. The guidelines include recommendations on a foundational course on IKS, which include details on Indian civilisation, education, literature, economics, textiles, metallurgy, fine arts and architecture, among others. Meanwhile, focus has also been given to Indian astronomy and mathematics.

BJP'S CHRISTIAN PUSH: ADDING TO KERALA'S POLITICAL MATRIX

The voices emanating from the Church in Kerala must be music to BJP's ears. The party knows now that one, and probably the only, way to break its Kerala jinx is to make it into the hearts of the sizeable Christian community. The party, despite its substantial presence, is yet to emerge as a serious political contender in the state, primarily because of its inability, so far, to solve Kerala's demographic equation where minorities make up nearly half the population. Now that the church leaders have begun expressing views sympathetic to it, the party cannot be faulted for nursing hopes of making reasonable electoral gains.

The first such voice emerged when Thalassery bishop Joseph Pamplany indicated the community could help BJP win if the Centre ensured ₹300/kg of rubber for farmers. Pamplany's open declaration favouring a quid pro quo electoral deal stunned political parties. It set off a series of similar statements from prelates across church denominations. Cardinal George Alencherry, head of the numerically dominant Catholic Syro-Malabar Church, endorsed the theory that the BJP is gaining support within the community and said Christians do not feel insecure in India. A bishop of the Malankara Orthodox Church said there was no untouchability towards BJP and RSS.

These should be read in the context of BJP's enthusiastic Christian outreach programme in Kerala. Christians form about 18% of the population, and BJP feels their support could propel it from being an also-ran to a winnable party. Kerala politics is set for a major change if the party successfully gains the trust and support of a significant proportion of the community. The Congress and the political front it leads will be the biggest losers. However, BJP cannot rely solely on these individual voices of support if it is looking for long-lasting political gains. As Cardinal Alencherry said, the time when bishops dictated people's political choices is over. While sympathetic words from priests may help BJP gain some extra Christian votes, the party may still come up short of getting the push it needs. In a state with strong ideological affiliations, BJP should look beyond wooing religious leaders to expand its foothold. Besides, it should be careful not to overestimate its influence within the community and be wary of getting carried away by the hype.

INSTITUTIONS NEED INFRA TO FIGHT CYBERCRIME

The Telangana State Police have recently unearthed a cybercrime of such magnitude that it could only be termed the country's biggest ever. Data on 66.9 crore individuals and organisations from 24 states have been compromised. It is as frightening as it is staggering since the accused was in possession of data from edutech companies, streaming services, digital payment applications, e-commerce websites, banks, mutual funds, the energy and power sector, RTOs and army personnel. Prima facie, it is not the handiwork of one person.

The accused, Vinay Bhardwaj, was found selling data to his clients through a website named InspireWebz. It has become common for individuals to fall prey to fraudsters online, but organisations whose data was stolen have a lot of explaining to do. A cursory glance at the relevant stats clearly shows what we are up against. More than 20 lakh cybercrime complaints have been registered on cybercrime.gov.in. One can only imagine how many of them have been cracked. More than 500 online applications have been banned. And India, according to reports, ranks third in the world in cybercrimes. The issue, police officials admit, is that many of the cybercrimes are transnational and significantly, the criminals are taking advantage of 'institutional inability' to steal data and commit other frauds. The Centre has the Indian Computer Emergency Response Team and the National Critical Information Infrastructure Protection Centre. Following the ransomware attack on AIIMS last year that paralysed it for six days, the National Counter Ransomware Task Force was set up. However, not many states are equipped enough. Telangana is an exception with its state-of-the-art integrated command control centre, where a new State Cyber Security Bureau is being set up. Besides, it also has a Centre of Excellence dedicated to strengthening cybersecurity. Nonetheless, the state saw over a 100% spike in cybercrimes from 2020 to 2021.

These cases are bound to rise as India is second only to China in internet users. Currently, cybercrimes are covered under the IT Act and the IPC. Perhaps the Centre will finally enact the Personal Data Protection Bill. Laws apart, we must focus on capacity building and creating public awareness on a war footing. Private and public companies or institutions should be mandated to have cybersecurity infrastructure. This is necessary for the law to be effective. If ignored, this will have national security implications impacting our economy.

QUICK TAKE

DORMANT DEPOSITS

RBI plans to return decade-old unclaimed bank deposits to 'rightful' beneficiaries. Nearly ₹35,000 crore of such money is already with the RBI. Identifying claimants is a massive exercise involving huge infrastructural costs. Bank accounts became KYC-compliant in 2004, but many customers rarely complied then—tracking them is difficult. For the same reason, they cannot present themselves for physical identification. Since RBI has the unclaimed money, prospective beneficiaries, if located, must go to the central bank to re-identify themselves, but does RBI have the manpower? Also, beneficiaries with questionable deposits may not wish to come forward to claim their money.

Parliamentary standards have been in free fall for a generation. No one is elected or defeated at the polls because of their performance in Parliament

PARLIAMENTARY CONDUCT: THE NEW GOLDEN RULE

SHASHI THAROOR

Third-term Lok Sabha MP from Thiruvananthapuram and the Sahitya-Akademi winning author of 24 books, most recently Ambedkar: A Life

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The second half of the Budget session of Parliament has ended last week, not with a bang with a whimper, as slogan-shouting MPs prompted the Speaker to adjourn the Lok Sabha without a single serious debate. As the Congress Party's designated lead speaker on the Finance Bill, I had done my homework and prepared enough points for a forty-minute speech. I would have been happy to have spoken even half that time, but the entire Bill, authorising our government to spend 45 lakh crore rupees, passed in nine minutes flat, without discussion, amid the cacophony of protesting voices by Opposition MPs.

It is one of the tragic realities of our times that the work of the 'temple of democracy', the Indian Parliament, has been reduced to a farce as both allies and supporters of the ruling party, and then members of the Opposition, repeatedly bring sessions to a standstill. What is new in this era is the phenomenon of disruptions orchestrated by the government, in order to avoid having to deal with awkward questions. It is compounded by the progressively downward trend in the duration of sittings, which, together with ever more frequent disruptions, have undermined the critical deliberative role of a Parliament.

The ruling party clearly regards Parliament as a necessary nuisance. You need a Parliament—first to form a government from its members and then to pass the laws you wish to impose upon the people. But having to deal with the impertinence of legislators' questions and listen to their tiresome views on matters about which you have already made up your mind is an inconvenience to be avoided as much as possible. In the last few years, the government has been treating Parliament as a noticeboard for the announcement of its decisions and a rubber-stamp for legalising them, rather than as a consultative body in a deliberative democracy.

The government's lack of interest in parliamentary accountability was brought home when, after Parliament was suspended because of Covid in March 2020, neither it nor its committees were allowed to be convened for months. While Covid provided a convenient excuse to have shorter Parliament sessions, the number of post-Covid debates on issues of national importance can be counted on the fingers of one hand.

In three terms in the Lok Sabha, my experience of disruption began in my first, when the BJP, then in Opposition, paralysed session after session with its clamour for resignations, for a JPC on the telecoms allocations, and for probes into various alleged misdemeanours of the UPA government. Its leaders were eloquent in justifying their behaviour: "It is a legitimate tactic for the Opposition to expose the government through the parliamentary instruments available at its command," Arun Jaitley proclaimed memorably. He was righteous in his indignation at the charge that by disrupting Parliament he was not doing the work he was elected to do. "Disrupting does not mean not doing work. What we are doing is in fact very important work."

As for the losses to the national exchequer from the disruption of Parliament, which was wasting crores of taxpayer rupees, Sushma Swaraj, the BJP's Leader of the Opposition in the Lok Sabha, declared, "By losing Rs. 10–20 crore from loss of Parliament proceedings, if we can build pressure on the government, then that is acceptable." Thus the BJP disrupted Parliament with impunity. In fact 68% of the time of the 2009–14 Lok Sabha was lost to BJP-led disruptions. It was hardly surprising that, in their turn, the UPA members decided to emulate their predecessors in Opposition.

Those of us who attended missionary schools learned the Golden Rule: do unto others as you would have them do unto you. The new Golden Rule of Indian politics has become: do unto them what they did unto you.

In a startling turnaround, the poachers have now become the gamekeepers. The very politicians who had argued the case for disruption—who had used sophistry and morality to obstruct the work of Parliament for years in the cause of the higher principle of accountability—suddenly decided that on this issue, where you stand depends on where you sit. Now that they are sitting on the Treasury benches, disruption is wasteful, even anti-national. Ironically, it was the BJP who had set the standards of parliamentary conduct they are now deploring. So when presiding officers from that party seek to suspend or expel Opposition MPs for the unruly behaviour that they themselves had practised when on the other side, what becomes of parliamentary democracy?

Parliamentary standards have been in free fall for a generation. The election of MPs has little to do with their parliamentary skills. No one is elected or defeated at the polls because of their performance in Parliament. Most MPs have limited interest in legislation and prefer to disrupt the proceedings rather than debate the principles. Meanwhile, the BJP government refuses to reach out to the Opposition and is content to ride roughshod over it to pass its Bills. Its contempt for the legislature is barely concealed. Unlike Jawaharlal Nehru, who attended Parliament daily, Prime Minister Modi barely deigns to grace the House with his presence. He has probably made more speeches abroad than in the Lok Sabha of which he is a member.

There is a simple solution possible: convene an all-party meeting and agree a new code of conduct that would be fair to both sides. Other parliamentary democracies allow the Opposition a day a week to raise the issues that matter to them. Bring in such a rule and in return, outlaw disruption, by mutual agreement. Parliament can then focus fairly on the nation's business.

The selective expulsion of Opposition disruptors is no solution. I am all in favour of creating new standards of acceptable parliamentary conduct, but only by consensus with all parties. Expelling your Opposition is not democracy. But Mr Modi knows that: he has done precisely that, repeatedly, in the Gujarat Assembly, passing laws in truncated sessions with almost the entire Opposition suspended from the House. In his 2014 election campaign Mr Modi had boasted that he would apply the Gujarat model to the rest of India. We must not now allow his party to apply the Gujarat Assembly model to the national Parliament.

GOVT-BUSINESS LINK NOT NEW, OPPOSITION MUST STOP TAINTING IT

SANDIP GHOSE

Current affairs commentator

The Adani Group continues to dominate headlines even after nearly three months of the Hindenburg report hitting the wires. The issue has been kept boiling not just by the opposition but also by foreign media periodically adding fuel to the fire.

The company itself has been nonchalant and the government has doggedly refused to be dragged into the fracas. It has denied demands for appointment of a Joint Parliamentary Committee (JPC) probe, having acceded to a review by a Supreme Court-appointed expert committee. It has left the rest to the independent regulator, Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI), and the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) to deal on merit. Meanwhile, retail investors seem unfazed. As per reports, the total number of retail investors across Adani Group companies rose by 47.4% to 6.95 million by the end of March.

The timing and method of assault has given rise to several conspiracy theories ranging from corporate rivalry to the invisible foreign hand trying to spoil the "India (Growth) Story" with the ultimate objective of forcing a regime change. Though the latter apprehensions may be far-fetched or debatable, at least one opposition party—namely, the Congress—has found cannon fodder to mount a full-scale attack on the government, specifically targeting the prime minister. It is reminiscent of Rahul Gandhi's "Chowkidar Chor Hai" campaign of 2018 alleging corruption in the Rafale deal. Even then the original trigger was a report in foreign media, and many saw it as a déjà vu of Rajiv Gandhi's Bofors moment. The current attempt to link Adani with Narendra Modi has shades of the insinuations of association between the Gandhi family and the Italian businessman Ottavio Quattrocchi during the Bofors saga. The jury is out and it is not for us to jump to any conclusion. However, it does raise some questions that merit consideration.

There are essentially three main charges against Adani: First is that of market manipulation through round tripping of money via off-shore vehicles controlled by family entities. Secondly, leveraging the inflated valuation of stocks to raise further funding. Thirdly, being a beneficiary of crony capitalism. Let us take one at a time.

Round tripping as practice has existed from time immemorial and is not typical of India. Tax havens across the world thrive on the business of tax engineering. That, however, does not legitimise re-routing operations or make money laundering kosher. The task of tracing the origin of money rests with the central bank of a country. RBI has been doing a fine job of that and has earned the respect of the international financial community for its independence and professionalism.

PTI

> The problem with crony capitalism arises when national interests are traded against favours. But mere facilitation of business cannot necessarily be construed as corruption. The country needs entrepreneurs with a risk appetite

Therefore, to tarnish the reputation of the premier financial institution with unsubstantiated charges has the potential to seriously damage national credibility and climate for foreign investments. Thus, a responsible political party should be cautious in hurling such accusations which could have long-term impact and come back to haunt it if it comes to power by ousting the current dispensation.

Valuation is often confused with earnings. It is no more than a temporal index of wealth based on the whims of the stock market, the ways of which are difficult to fathom. The acid test is the asset base and expected future earning streams.

In the case of the Adani Group, the bulk of its investments are in infrastructure assets such as ports, airports and power that are poised to grow exponentially as India moves up in the hierarchy of the global economic order. Its recent acquisition of the Holcim cement operations in India are also linked to the infrastructure sector. Another chunk of its businesses are in energy—both traditional and green. This probably explains the faith of the retail investors in the future prospects of the group.

Much is being made of Life Insurance Corporation (LIC) increasing its stake in Adani stocks, saying the money of ordinary citizens is being used to prop up a faltering crony capitalist. In fact, it can be conversely argued that by not buying Adani shares in the dip, LIC would be doing greater disservice to its shareholders.

Finally comes the 'elephant in the room'—the sensitive question of 'crony capitalism'. As Sharad Pawar pointed out, associating business houses with the government of the day is not new. Only the names keep changing. Post-Independence one used to hear of the Birlas, Tatas, Bajaj, Dalmias and a few other names. Reliance ruled the roost for several decades.

Though the Adani Group has been around for a long time, it is seen as the new kid on the block. Some may argue that it has emerged as a foil to Reliance in the Modi era. But the arguments are misplaced. The problem with crony capitalism arises when national interests are traded against favours. But mere facilitation of business cannot necessarily be construed as corruption. The country needs entrepreneurs with a risk appetite. Counterfactually speaking, without "swadeshi" businessmen like G D Birla, Jamnalal Bajaj and J R D Tata—a fledgling economy like India could not have taken strides in industrialisation. Our neighbour which got Independence at the same time is a study of contrast.

Now India needs a few enterprises of global scale. Not everyone has either the ambition, audacity and above all, the vision of an Adani or Ambani to take on the world. In global trade, lobbying is not a bad word. The Americans and Europeans have done it all along for their companies. Now the Japanese, Korean and Chinese are emulating them. If our prime minister is doing it for Indian businesses, he is discharging his duty as the chief executive of the country and not as a favour to Adani. To spite Modi, the opposition should not end up cutting the nation's nose.

Social democracy

Apropos of Ode to Ambedkar, visionary of a democratic India (Apr 13). Democracy is not just a political philosophy but has to be a way of life for every Indian. While we celebrate the 75th anniversary of our Independence, much remains to be done. The deaths of countless sanitation workers while cleaning drainages, drug addiction among unemployable youths, etc., are disturbing issues. I agree with the author: the real tribute to Dr Ambedkar lies in "complete transformation of our political democracy into a social democracy".
P Prema, Thanjavur

Ambedkar's contributions

Dr B R Ambedkar put his soul and spirit in drafting the Constitution of India. His invaluable contribution of democratic traditions are in line with liberty, equality and fraternity under the plank of social democracy. All the socioeconomic welfare schemes are governed by the provisions in the Directive Principles.

Kumaraswamy's query

Apropos of Why didn't Congress make Dalit a CM after 2018 elections (Apr 12). What will HD Kumaraswamy's answer be if the same question is asked to him or his party? In the past, his party also got an opportunity to form a government in the state. Instead of asking a question to the Congress, he could have easily done it in the past.

Centre's overtures

The explicit overtures made by the BJP in Kerala to religious as well as community bigwigs are ploys to garner minority votes. At the same time, financial scams and misappropriation allegations stare at quite a few of the leaders keenly inclined to be friendly with the party in power at the Centre.

Electoral laws

It's time to tweak our electoral laws to prevent one candidate from contesting two seats simultaneously. It is nothing but a mockery of democracy and a burden on the exchequer. It was indeed strange to see tall BJP leaders like R Ashoka and V Somanna allotted two assembly seats to contest.

Shah reviews preparations for G20 event in Srinagar

Holds meeting with NSA, J&K L-G, RAW chief in view of Pak threat

AMIT MUKHERJEE @ New Delhi

LEAVING nothing to chance, the home ministry is working on full proof security for the forthcoming G20 meeting to be held in Srinagar between May 22 and 24.

The Union Home Minister Amit Shah, National Security Advisor Ajit Doval, Jammu & Kashmir LG Manoj Sinha and other senior officials of the MHA including the Home Secretary, Director (IB), RAW Chief and other senior officials from UT of Jammu & Kashmir gathered at New Delhi's North Block on Thursday and reviewed the ground law & order situation, security preparedness, deployment and other issues related to coordination of G20 meet to be held in Srinagar between May 22-24.

The meeting assumes significance in the wake of Pakistan, which had been sponsoring and attempting to trigger terrorist activities in the region. The economically doddering nation has also opposed India's move to hold one of the sessions of the G20 meet in the union territory of Jammu and Kashmir.

India assumed the rotational presidency of the grouping this year. The event calendar in its schedule has a G-20 Tourism Working Group meeting in Srinagar on May 22-24, while two other meetings of a consultative forum on youth affairs (Y-20) will be held in Leh and Srinagar. The decision was taken amidst restoration of peace and effective counter terrorism measures taken by the government in the last few years.

During the meeting the Home Ministers took stock of the area domination plan, zero terror plan, law and order situation, cases related to Unlawful Activities Prevention Act (UAPA) and other security related issues of Jammu and Kashmir during the meeting.

While reviewing the G-20 Meeting preparations, Shah asked all agencies to work in a coordinated manner for successful conduct of the event.

Shah also reviewed the functioning of the security grid and various aspects related to security. He reiterated that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the Government of India is committed towards zero tolerance against terrorism.

The Minister also reviewed the Area Domination Plan, Zero Terror Plan, Law and order situation, cases related to UAPA and other security related issues. Shah appreciated the efforts of the security agencies and administration of the Union Territory of Jammu & Kashmir for substantial reduction in cross border infiltration and improvement in law & order and also advised to strengthen the routine policing.

Church attack data incorrect, SC told

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Centre on Thursday disputed figures presented in a clutch of pleas in the Supreme Court alleging attacks on Christian institutions, calling such numbers "wrong."

Out of the 495 alleged cases of attacks on Christian institutions and priests, 232 were reported to the police of eight states like Bihar and Chhattisgarh, and even family feuds and private land disputes have been shown as 'communal targeting' to 'create a false narrative' about India, said the Centre in an affidavit filed before the top court.

Ministry of Home Affairs told a CJI-led bench that India is a vibrant pluralistic society founded on strong democratic principles. The number of such instances alleged in the plea is exaggerated and the petitioners wanted to keep "the pot boiling" to sully the nation's image abroad.

"The petitioners claim that there were nearly 500 incidents of attacks on Christians. We sent everything to the states... Let us take the case of Bihar. The attacks the petitioners cite are internal fights between neighbours of which one of them would be a Christian. They have later resolved. The figures given are incorrect. This is how it is being displayed outside the country. This is the message that goes out to the public that Christians are in danger. This is wrong," said SG Tushar Mehta.

The SG's reply came in the plea that highlighted the "exponential rise" in the attacks against the Christian community post-2022. The plea sought the setting up of special investigation teams from outside the affected states to probe the alleged attacks and register FIRs. Relief was also sought for directing the states to provide police protection for prayer meetings and directing SITs to identify and prosecute members of political organizations who instigated the assaults.

The bench granted the petitioners three weeks to respond to the Centre's affidavit pursuant to Advocate Colin Gonsalves submission that the affidavit was placed late last night and that he wanted more time to respond to it.

The Centre in the 217-page affidavit claimed that in the 263 cases out of 495 cases were not even reported to the states. "Further, out of 232 incidents which have been reported to the state governments, the matters were resolved in 73 incidents amicably with mutual agreement between both the parties. These 73 incidents were related to cases of land and family disputes, superstitious practices, violation of Covid-19 guidelines and other trivial issues," the affidavit stated.

The SC has sought response from the Ministry of Women and Child Development with regards to data of states on child marriages, steps taken for implementing the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, and its policies for effectuating the Prohibition of Child Marriage Act. HC order for CBI probe into attack on min's convoy set aside

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Thursday set aside Calcutta HCs order which had directed CBI to probe into the attack on Minister of State (Home) Nisith Pramanik in Cooch Behar district on February 25. Minister's convoy was attacked when he was visiting his constituency.

Remarking that the Calcutta HC did not apply its mind to the entire facts, a bench of CJI DY Chandrachud, Justices PS Narasimha and JB Pardiwala asked the HC to consider the matter afresh.

The bench while setting aside HCs order took cognisance of the affidavit which was filed before the HC by Superintendent of Police and steps taken out by the police authorities. The top court also said that although the HC was apprised of 21 arrests, registration of six specific cases of ransacking and damage but it did not take note of these facets.

The HCs March 28, 2023 order was passed in a PIL instituted by Suvendhu Adhikari, MLA and LoP in West Bengal Assembly which alleged that the attack was at the behest of TMC party and thus the police did not take any action against the perpetrators.

Tally of Covid cases now stands at over 10K, highest in 222 days

KAVITA BAJELI-DATT @ New Delhi

INDIA recorded a sharp hike in daily Covid-19 cases at 10,158, the highest in 222 days, as compared to the previous day on Thursday. As per Union health ministry data, 19 deaths were reported in the country in the last 24 hours.

Maharashtra, where XBB.1.16 sub-variant was first detected, reported nine deaths, followed by two deaths in Gujarat. One death each was reported in Delhi, Kerala, Rajasthan and Tamil Nadu. Kerala also reported four reconciled deaths.

It was the first time in over 200 days that India reported over 10,000 cases. The last time over 10,000 cases was reported was August 31, 2022, when 10,253 cases were detected, and 37 deaths were reported.

Both Maharashtra and Delhi are reporting over 1,000 Covid-19 cases. While Maharashtra recorded over 1,000 cases after September 9, Delhi last registered 1,000 cases on August 19.

According to Krishna Prasad N C, a Covid data analyst, Rajasthan (87 per cent), Kerala (81 per cent), Karnataka (33 per cent), Maharashtra (21 per cent), Chhattisgarh (23 per cent), Punjab (22 per cent), and Goa (14 per cent) have reported a high number of Covid-19 cases in the last 24 hours.

Dr Pragya Yadav, scientist and group leader of Maximum Containment Laboratory at NIV, Pune, said, "The Covid-19 cases are increasing. The reason is that the virus is changing, and people's immunity is fading."

She added that apart from India, XBB.1.16 – a recombinant variant - is driving a surge in other countries also. "We have seen 1,000 variants of Omicron, and the virus is constantly mutating," said Yadav, who was awarded for her work in developing, Covaxin.

XBB.1.16 has an effective reproductive number (Re) that is 1.27- and 1.17-times higher than the parental XBB.1 and XBB.1.5, respectively, she said, adding that this shows that XBB.1.16 will spread worldwide shortly also. "Though cases are increasing, I don't think the situation will escalate. So far, the positivity rate is low. We have seen that world over cases see a spike during February-March. India is prepared as we have the experience of battling Covid-19," she said.

According to the ministry, the daily positivity rate was recorded at 4.42 per cent, while the weekly positivity rate was 4.02 per cent. The active cases now constitute 0.10 per cent of the total infections.

The national Covid-19 recovery rate has been recorded at 98.71 per cent, the ministry said, while the case fatality rate was recorded at 1.19 per cent.

Withdraw IT Amendment Rules, INS urges Centre

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

THE Indian Newspaper Society (INS) has urged the Centre to withdraw the Information Technology (Intermediary Guidelines and Digital Media Ethics Code) Amendment Rules, 2023 issued by the Ministry of Electronics & Information Technology on April 6.

"As per the newly notified rules, the ministry will enjoy the power to constitute a fact-checking unit, which will have sweeping powers to determine what is 'fake or false or misleading' with respect to any business of the Central government'. This unit will also have the power to issue instructions to intermediaries, including social media platforms, Internet Service Providers and other service providers, to not host such content and take out the content if it has been published," it said.

"The Indian Newspaper Society is constrained to state that this would have the effect of the government or its designated agency enjoying absolute power to determine what is fake or not, in respect of its own work, and order it to be taken down. Such power is seen to be arbitrary, as it is exercised without hearing the parties, and thus a violation of all principles of natural justice," it said.

Heat wave set to sizzle North India and East Coastal region, says IMD

JITENDRA CHOUBEY @ New Delhi

INDIA'S Gangetic plains and the east-coastal region will face a heat wave in the next few days.

Severe heat wave will hit according to the India Meteorological Department (IMD) However, Northwest and western India will receive light to moderate rainfall with thunderstorms and lightning.

Central and north peninsular India will have maximum temperatures in 40-42 degree range. West Bengal, Sikkim, Odisha, coastal Andhra, Madhya Pradesh and Bihar are very likely to face an extra 3-5 degree of heat during next 4-5 days.

Heat wave is considered if the maximum temperature of a station reaches at least 40 degrees Celcius or more for plains and at least 30 degree Celsius or more for hilly regions. Heat wave can be for the human body when exposed.

According to IMDs, heat wave conditions are very likely in isolated pockets over Gangetic West Bengal during 13th-17th April, over north coastal Andhra Pradesh & Odisha during 13th-15th April and Bihar during 15th-17th April, 2023.

"Absence of rainfall lead to rise in temperatures," says IMD's scientist.

However, West India and Northwest India will likely have isolated rainfall with thunderstorms/lightning.

Konkan and Goa, Madhya Maharashtra and Marathwada will likely have isolated hailstorms during the next 5 days.

'Crucial five days ahead'

Maximum temperatures are in the range of 40-42°C over parts of central & north peninsular India.

Western Himalayan region and Northeast India, West Bengal & Sikkim, Odisha, Coastal Andhra Pradesh, Kerala and Mahe, and Madhya Pradesh

Heat wave conditions

Gangetic West Bengal, Bihar, coastal Andhra Pradesh and Odisha

Isolated rainfall and hailstorms, thunderstorm

Western and Northwest parts of India to receive rain with thunderstorms and lightning, while absence of rain elsewhere:

Isolated hailstorm forecast in next five days: Konkan and Goa, Madhya Maharashtra and Marathwada, Jammu and Kashmir, Laddakh, Himachal Pradesh, west Rajasthan and Punjab

Similarly, Jammu and Kashmir, Ladakh, Himachal, Uttarakhand, and Punjab are likely to have scattered rainfall with thunderstorms and lightning.

IMD's Agromet division advised farmers of western India, especially Konkan & Goa, Madhya Maharashtra and Marathwada, during the next 5 days which might affect some horticulture crops like grapes, sapota, onions and pomegranate. Growers should keep the harvested produce at safer place.

Besides rising temperatures, a cyclonic circulation lies over southwest Rajasthan and a fresh Western Disturbance is likely to affect Western Himalayan Region from 15th April 2023.

Under the influence of Western Disturbance, isolated to scattered rainfall with thunderstorms likely over Western Himalayan Region and northeastern states during many days of the third week (20-26 April). It would lead to a lowering of temperatures by 2-3 degrees C in this region.

Due to fresh western disturbances, weather anomalies would be observed all over the country.

NANOCAGES FOR DRUG DELIVERY

Researchers from University of Cambridge have developed super-sized 'nanocages' to carry more volumes of drugs to specific locations inside the body for in-vivo treatment drug delivery. Nanocages are tiny artificial containers which can be used to deliver therapeutic drug cargoes to a target destination in the body. But some drug molecules are too big for a standard-sized nanocage 'box'. Rational control over self-assembly of these types of large, hollow coordination cages poses considerable challenges. The research team decided to use a simple building block process inspired by natural biological systems.

POLAR BEAR FUR TO THE RESCUE OF INHABITANTS IN -50° C CLIMATES

An army officer pays tribute to army martyrs during 35th Siachen Day celebrations in Siachen | PTI

Soldiers posted on Siachen Glacier, where temperatures can dip to around -50 degrees Celsius, can have warmer clothing, thanks to researchers developing a technique for trapping heat using the fur of polar bears. Engineers from University of Massachusetts Amherst have invented a fabric using polar bear's white fur as its exterior and a dark base which can keep the heat trapped, in turn keep the body of the wearer warm even in an extreme cold climate. The idea came from the skin and fur of the polar bears themselves. Polar bears have black skin under their white fur. The white fur is effective in transmitting the heat from the sun. The researchers engineered a bilayer fabric whose top layer is composed of threads that, like polar bear's white fur, which conducts visible light down to the lower layer, which is made of nylon and coated with a dark material called PEDOT, which warms efficiently.

A ROBOT THAT CAN PLAY 'CATCH BALL' IS ROUND THE CORNER

Soon, you might have robots playing "catch ball" with you, probably with as much dexterity in their 'hands' as the human hand.

UNIVERSITY OF CAMBRIDGE

Researchers have designed a low-cost, energy-efficient robotic hand that can grasp a range of objects – and not drop them – using just the movement of its wrist and the feeling in its 'skin'. Researchers from the University of Cambridge designed the soft, 3-D printed robotic hand that cannot independently move its fingers but can still carry out a range of complex movements. Researchers at Bio-Inspired Robotics Laboratory in University of Cambridge's Department of Engineering have been developing potential solutions to both problems: a robot that can grasp a variety of objects with the correct amount of pressure while using a minimal amount of energy. For the road ahead, the researchers are looking at adding computer vision capabilities, or teaching the robot to exploit its environment, which would enable it to grasp a wider range of objects.

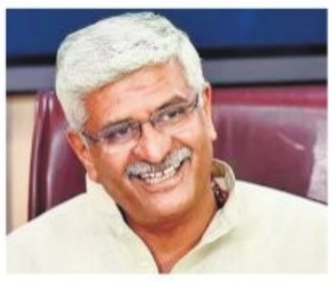
Raj HC stays arrest of Shekhawat in co-op society case

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur



IN a big relief for Union Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat, the Rajasthan High Court on Thursday issued orders to stay the arrest of the Minister in the Sanjivani Credit Cooperative Society case.

The minister had filed a criminal miscellaneous petition seeking relief in the matter although he is not mentioned as an accused in the FIR registered in an alleged scam of more than ₹900 crore. The Rajasthan Special Operations Group is investigating the case.

A bench of Justice Kuldeep Mathur heard the petition and granted the stay on arrest. The court then listed the matter for further hearing after three weeks.

Shekhawat had moved a petition on March 24 for quashing the FIR in the case and transferring the probe to the CBI. His counsel Dhirendra Singh Daspan said they sought the transfer of the investigation to the CBI on the grounds that the state has no jurisdiction in the matter.

The Union minister's move came following a spate of allegations by Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot, accusing the Central minister and his family of being involved in misappropriation of depositors' money in the name of huge return on their deposits.

Over the past month, the Special Operation Group (SOG) investigating the scam became suddenly active and registered 123 FIRs of the victims of the alleged scam. CM Gehlot had earlier alleged that not only Shekhawat but his father, mother and wife were also involved in the Sanjeevani scam. That allegation had led to Shekhawat filing a defamation complaint in Delhi against Gehlot in early March.

Responding to the relief given to Shekhawat, CM Ashok Gehlot said that "if Shekhawat was not an accused then why was there a need to go to the High Court?"

Tribal outfit bats for 3rd front in '23 polls

In a development, which may hit Congress's assembly poll plans, tribal outfit Jai Adivasi Yuva Shakti (JAYS) is planning to work for the formation of a third front in MP, instead of siding with the Congress like the 2018 assembly polls. JAYS sources have indicated that they are batting for a third front with other like-minded smaller parties, which will focus on 120 seats (including the 82 SC and ST reserved seats) out of the total 230 seats in MP. Importantly, there are reports about a third front of smaller parties, including Azad Samaj Party, taking shape for the MP polls.

Cong now caught in 'bhavi pratyashi' row

Just a couple of months after some posters projecting state party president Kamal Nath as bhavi mukyamantri (future MP CM) caused controversy within the Congress, the grand old party's state unit has now had to issue a circular. It cautioned disciplinary action against those workers and leaders who have been projecting themselves as bhavi pratyashi (future candidates) in the year end assembly polls. The state party leadership has issued a circular to all its district units to inform about all such leaders and even workers who have been projecting themselves as future candidates in public places and social media and that strict actions will be taken against them.

BJP district heads to quit to contest polls

District unit chiefs of ruling BJP won't be eligible to get party tickets to contest the year-end assembly polls, unless they quit from their organisational posts. A decision to this respect was taken at a booth-level-workers-expansion meeting of the party on the outskirts of Bhopal recently. Importantly, the prime Opposition party — Congress, too, had made a decision on similar lines a couple of months back, making it clear that party organization office bearers will have to quit from their posts if they are aspiring to contest the assembly polls.

Prayers in Srinagar's Eidgah still uncertain

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

UNCERTAINTY looms large on the offering of first Eid congregational prayers at Eidgah ground in Srinagar after the abrogation of Article 370 by centre in 2019. While J&K Waqaf Board chairperson has said the Eid prayers would be offered at the Eidgah ground, it remains to be seen whether police allows the Eid congregation at the sensitive downtown locality.

Senior BJP leader Dr Darakshan Andrabi, who heads J&K Wakf Board, announced last week that Eid prayers would be offered at Eidgah grounds. The Eid-ul-Fitr, marking the culmination of Muslim holy month of Ramzan, is likely to be celebrated either on April 21 or 22.

Andrabi, after her visit to Eidgah last week, said the administration would level out the ground and arrange a public address system for hosting Eid prayers this year. She said in the atmosphere of peace prevailing in Kashmir, Eid prayers should also be offered with joy at Eidgah.

'Acting like political party:' HC judge comments on Abhishek draw TMC flak

PRANAB MANDAL @ Kolkata

In an unprecedented row between West Bengal's ruling party and the judiciary, the Trinamool Congress on Thursday slammed Calcutta High Court justice Abhijit Ganguly after he made an observation in an open court that the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and the CBI should interrogate Abhishek Banerjee, the nephew of chief minister Mamata Banerjee,

The probe would be in connection with the ongoing probe into alleged irregularities in recruitment in schools, which has become an issue of embarrassment for the TMC. Ganguly's observation came a day after a jailed TMC youth leader alleged that pressure was being put on him by the ED to name Abhishek, who is also TMC's national general secretary, in connection with the scam.

'Overstepping limits'

Branding Ganguly as a cadre of a political party, TMC spokesperson Kunal Ghosh said that the justice overstepped his limits, targeting Abhishek with a political motive for the CPI, BJP.

Branding Ganguly as a cadre of a political party, TMC spokesperson Kunal Ghosh said that the justice overstepped his limits, targeting Abhishek with a political motive.

"He is misusing the power of his chair. He is strengthening the CPI(M) and the BJP in Bengal," said Ghosh. Hitting out at the justice, Ghosh said, "You (Ganguly) have expressed his wish-list. How can he comment on what the ED and CBI should do? Are you in-charge of the investigation? You are influencing the investigation by making such comments."

While asking about the progress of the probe into alleged recruitment scam, justice Ganguly said, "The investigating agency has only reached up to the waist of the corruption. It should reach the heart and brain of the alleged malpractice. Why is the CBI wasting time? Abhishek Banerjee should be interrogated."

KAJAL HINDUSTANI

Right-wing activist gets bail in Guj

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA @ Ahmedabad

RIGHT-wing activist Kajal Hindustani, arrested for alleged "hate speech" on Ram Navami that provoked riots in the state's Una town, was granted regular bail by Gir Somnath district sessions court on Thursday.

Hindustani was granted bail by Judge R. M. Asodiya. She was arrested by Una police on April 9 after she voluntarily surrendered. She was lodged at the Junagadh central jail as the police didn't seek her remand. The magisterial court had denied her bail on that day and sent her to Junagadh jail. Subsequently, she moved to the sessions court for bail.

According to Kajal's lawyer, the court granted bail on various terms and conditions, including her appearance at the police station twice a month, not leaving India, surrendering her passport, and not entering Gir Somnath district unless her case is heard. Kajal was arrested on Sunday in connection with the complaint filed against her at the Una police station On April 2.

Maha BJP shares DyCM post on Hindu Rashtra; Oppn says oath violation

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @Mumbai

THE Maharashtra BJP has stirred a controversy by sharing a post on its official twitter handle of the smiling face of Maharashtra deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis saying, "India was a Hindu Rashtra, it is a Hindu Rashtra and will remain as such."

The Opposition slammed it saying it is a violation of the oath taken by deputy chief minister.

The Maharashtra BJP's twitter handle on Thursday shared the post of saying no matter how much someone wears the veil of secularism, we do not care and are concerned whether they accept it or not. It is fact – India is Hindu Rashtra. The post further added, "India was Hindu Rashtra, it is a Hindu Rashtra and India will remain as such."

Maharashtra Congress general secretary Sachin Sawant sharply reacting to the post of deputy chief minister said that this post is against the tenet of the Constitution. "This is a breach of oath by deputy chief minister Devendra Fadanvis who is holding the constitutional position. So, he has to respect all religions and communities and cannot propagate any specific community and religion," Sawant said. Maharashtra NCP president Jayant Patil said that the countries that give extreme importance to religion cannot progress.

Reacting to Sawant, BJP leader Sweta Shalini said on her social media platform that Hinduism is a way of life and the Supreme Court has defined it as well. "Congress carried out the 87 amendment in the Indian Constitution and during the emergency inserted words like socialist and secularism into the Constitution.

Priyanka kicks off Cong poll campaign from Bastar

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

CONGRESS general secretary Priyanka Gandhi during her first visit to Maoist-affected Bastar on Thursday stressed the need for the trust factor in the day-to-day tribal life to build a dependable relationship. Launching an election campaign for the ruling Congress at 'Bharose Ka Sammelan' in Chhattisgarh, she exhorted the people to compare the earlier 15 years of the BJP with the present Congress government that has won the trust of the masses and restored the pride of the state.

"You now have two examples to judge for yourself. The people trusted the BJP that betrayed them when the state witnessed fear, hunger and corruption at its peak. We feel pride in how Congress not just worked for the tribals but also fulfilled its promises, keeping aloft the trust of the people," she claimed while addressing a public rally at Lalbagh ground in Jagdalpur.

Reposing faith in CM Bhupesh Baghel, she said trust is built when the people evaluate how the promises are kept after a party forms the government.

Priyanka said that Bastar which often evoked Maoist terror earlier has now become a brand with globally recognized quality products made by the locals. She recollected that her grandmother Indira Gandhi used to cite the tribal culture as best since the adivasi people respect nature and never do any harm to the environment while depending on it for sustenance.

"Good work can be achieved only with commitment. The Congress government has worked to re-impose the culture and the esteem of the people. Congress is moving ahead keeping your trust intact. Tribal womenfolk got immense scope to earn a better livelihood and secure income for their families", said Priyanka as she praised the state's flagship programme on Gauthan with the spirit of local festivals and cultural traditions revived.

Gandhi said she could see on Baghel's face "the love he has in his heart for the people of Chhattisgarh". "Whenever he meets me, he never says any negative things. He never does backbiting nor speaks ill about anyone. He always talks about new work and policies for Chhattisgarh... I have met many leaders but only a few like him sincerely want to work for people and can be completely trusted to keep their promises."

Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel affirmed that the Bastar, earlier infamous for Maoist menace, is witnessing development on all fronts and peace is fast returning to the region.

The CM launched 'Mukhyamantri Adivasi Parab Samman Nidhi Yojana' to offer financial aid of ₹10,000 annually to all 1,840 gram panchayats of Bastar division to facilitate the tribal communities to celebrate their festivals with gusto.

"The state government during its last four-and-a-half years has put over ₹150 lakh crore in the pockets of common people to bring about a real change in their lives. We believe in moving ahead taking everybody along", Baghel said. Baghel also took potshots at the policies of the BJP government. "We did not give sandals or shoes or mobile phones but instead put cash in your account so you can make wise decisions for yourself and there is no scope for commission."

Ahead of MP polls, BJP deputes 14 seniors to pacify internal conflict

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

FEAR of internal sabotage in next assembly polls and big ticket switch-overs to the opposition Congress, seems to have prompted the ruling BJP to depute its senior leaders, including two union ministers into pre-emptive damage control exercise in Madhya Pradesh.

Eyeing to retain power with a clear majority, the state party has tasked 14 senior leaders, including two union ministers – Narendra Singh Tomar and Faggan Singh Kulaste – to meet and pacify disgruntled leaders across the state.

Each of these 14 leaders, that also include BJP parliamentary board member and ex-union minister Satyanarayan Jatiya, national general secretary Kailash Vijayvargiya, ex-state president Dr Prabhat Jha, senior MP minister Gopal Bhargava and former ministers Jaibhan Singh Pavaiya, Rajendra Shukla and Maya Singh, have been tasked with covering 2-4 districts in the 52 districts-strong state.

The state BJP leaders are terming the exercise as a planned move to give proper hearing to one and all within the party (particularly former lawmakers and ex-party organization office bearers).

Damage control: Move has multi-pronged aim

The saffron party has revealed to this newspaper that the move has a multi-pronged motive, including preventing the possibility of internal sabotage in polls due to denial of tickets to existing legislators or refusal of ticket to those aspiring to contest polls for long. It is also to prevent the ticket switch-overs to the opposition Congress.

However, informed sources within the saffron party has confided to this newspaper that the move has multi-pronged motive, including preventing possibility of internal sabotage in polls due to denial of tickets to existing legislators or refusal of ticket to those aspiring to contest polls for long.

The move has particularly been necessitated by two BJP leaders, including ex-MP Makahansingh Solanki and Rao Yadevdnra Singh Yadav (son of ex-MLA Rao Deshraj Singh Yadav) joining the Congress last month and specific inputs of about three neta-putras (sons of senior BJP politicians) and some sitting and former BJP MLAs being on the radar of the Kamal Nath-led party.

The three neta-putras who are being keenly eyed by the Congress, include former CM Late Kailash Joshi's son and ex-MP minister Deepak Joshi, former state finance minister Jayant Malaiya's son Siddharth Malaiya and former forest minister Dr Gauri Shankar Shejwar's son Mudit Shejwar.

Former minister Deepak Joshi, when contacted, didn't rule out making a major political announcement after Karnataka polls.

The three-time former MLA from Dewas district, said, "If the party doesn't find me competent enough for being assigned something important in the state in coming weeks , then I will take major political decisions after the Karnataka polls are over."

LEAK PROBE GETS CLOSE AS INFO ON SOURCE EMERGES

FBI arrests 21-yr-old member of Massachusetts Air National Guard

WASHINGTON

US authorities on Thursday arrested a suspect in the case of leaked classified documents, according to US media, which has honed in on a young National Guard member as the possible source of the security breach.

The FBI made a "probable cause" arrest of a man identified by authorities as a member of the Massachusetts Air National Guard, ABC News reported.

CNN aired footage from North Dighton, Massachusetts showing the detainee in shorts with his hands behind his back and being placed by agents into an unmarked vehicle. Attorney General Merrick Garland was set to formally announce the arrest on Thursday afternoon.

"There's a full-blown investigation going on, as you know, with the intelligence community and the Justice Department, and they're getting close," Biden said.

The president's remarks came after The Washington Post reported that hundreds of pages of documents had been posted in a group called Thug Shaker Central on social media platform Discord by a man who worked on a US military base.

The New York Times said it had identified a "trail of digital evidence" leading to a young air national guardsman as both the leader of the group and the leaker, although they made clear he has not been officially identified as a suspect. The newspaper identified him as Jack Teixeira, a 21-year-old member of the intelligence wing of the Massachusetts Air National Guard. The Wall Street Journal also pointed the finger at an air national guardsman, and said an arrest could take place as early as Thursday.

The reports said the alleged leaker, who went by the nickname "OG," regularly posted documents in the group for months.

The group of around 24, including people from Russia and Ukraine, bonded over their "mutual love of guns, military gear and God," and formed an "invitation-only clubhouse in 2020 on Discord," the Post— which like the Times cited unidentified members of Thug Shaker Central—reported.The Defence Department did not confirm his identity but said in a statement that, "We are aware of the investigation into the alleged role a Massachusetts Air National Guardsman may have played in the recent leak of highly-classified documents."

Agencies

Russia identifies suspect in cafe blast

Russia's top security agency on Thursday accused a Ukrainian man of involvement in a bombing that killed a well-known Russian military blogger at a St Petersburg cafe. A 26-year-old Darya Trepova was arrested. On Thursday, the Federal Security Service, known under its Russian acronym FSB, declared that a Ukrainian citizen whom it identified as Yuriy Denysov, had gathered information about the blogger and provided Trepova with explosives delivered via courier service.

Leaks nothing of great consequence: Biden

US President Joe Biden on Thursday said while he was concerned that sensitive government documents had been leaked, "There's nothing contemporaneous that I'm aware of that is of great consequence." It was the first time Biden has commented publicly about the release of Pentagon documents that were posted on several social media sites. National Security Council spokesman John Kirby on Monday urged caution, "since we know at least in some cases that information was doctored."

Don will answer questions in NY fraud lawsuit, says his lawyer

NEW YORK

FORMER President Donald Trump arrived at the offices of New York's attorney general Thursday for his second deposition in a legal battle over his firm's business practices, with his lawyer signaling that he intends to answer questions this time instead of invoking his Fifth Amendment protection against self-incrimination.

"President Trump is not only willing but also eager to testify before the Attorney General today," his attorney, Alina Habba, said in a statement. "He remains resolute in his stance that he has nothing to conceal, and he looks forward to educating the Attorney General about the immense success of his multi-billion dollar company."

The Republican was meeting with lawyers for Attorney General Letitia James, who sued Trump last year. Her lawsuit claims Trump and his family misled banks and business associates by giving them false information about his net worth and the value of assets like hotels and golf courses. In a social media post Thursday, Trump called the suit "ridiculous, just like all of the other Election Interference cases being brought against me." The lawsuit James brought is scheduled to go to trial in October. Thursday's deposition will be conducted in private. AP

Vedanta to raise up to ₹2,100 crore via NCDs

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

MINING giant Vedanta on Thursday announced that its Committee of Directors have approved raising up to ₹2,100 crore by issuing debt financial instruments NCDs (Non Convertible Debentures) on a private placement basis.

In a regulatory filing, Vedanta said the Board at this meeting has considered and approved to raise a total of no more than 21,000 NCDs of face value ₹10,00,000 each in one or more tranches on a private placement basis, taking the total issue size to ₹2,100 crore.

Vedanta's Board of Directors had given a green light to the proposal of issuing funds at their meeting held last month.

The fundraising via NCDs comes amidst reports that the cash-strapped Vedanta is in advanced negotiations to raise $1.5-2 billion from US hedge fund Farallon Capital Management. Vedanta is expected to utilite fresh funds to meet its debt obligations. Crisil Ratings had recently revised the outlook of Vedanta's NCDs and long-term bank facilities to negative from stable, citing higher financial leverage and lower financial flexibility. The rating agency had said that Vedanta Resources, the parent company of Vedanta, has annual debt maturities of about $3 billion each in FY24 and FY25, with high near-term maturities of $1.7 billion in the first quarter of fiscal 2024. Billionaire Anil Agarwal-promoted Vedanta had in February said that it is fully confident of meeting its upcoming maturities in the quarter ending June 2023.

Infy net up 8%, misses estimates

IT services company pegs FY24 growth guidance at 4%-7% on constant currency basis

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

WITH decision-making cycles getting delayed coupled with a weak macroeconomic environment, IT services companies have been steering through the difficult phase as was evident in Infosys' revenue guidance for FY24. It pegs growth guidance at 4%-7% in constant currency based on large deals and overall wins that it had in the year.

Like its rival Tata Consultancy Services (TCS), Infosys' fourth quarter numbers were below the street estimates.

On Thursday, it posted a 7.7% rise in its consolidated net profit for the fourth quarter ending March 31, 2023 at ₹6,128 crore. Its net profit in the year-ago period was ₹5,686 crore. Sequentially, it is a weak quarter for the company as its net profit was down 7%. Infosys had posted ₹6,586 crore net profit in the December quarter.

The company's revenues in the fourth quarter stood at ₹37,441 crore, growth of 16% year-on-year (YoY). However, sequentially it was down 2.3%. For FY23, the company's revenues stood at ₹1,46,767 crore, growth of 20.7% compared to ₹1,21,641 crore in the previous fiscal. Its operating margin for the quarter was at 21%, a decline of 0.6% y-o-y. "Our continued focus on cost optimisation and operational efficiencies have helped in achieving operating margins of 21.0% in FY23, said Nilanjan Roy, Chief Financial Officer.

Salil Parekh, CEO and MD, Infosys said in the fourth quarter the company saw changes in the market environment. "During the quarter we saw unplanned project ramp downs in some of our clients and delays in decision making which resulted in lower volumes. In addition, we had a one-time revenue impact. While we saw some signs of stabilisation in March, the environment remains uncertain," he added.

He also said some ramp downs were unplanned across sectors such as hi-tech, retail and telecom and in financial services such as investment banking, mortgage and asset management. Speaking about the one-time impact on revenue, CFO said it was due to volume, and also a combination of cancellations and specific client issues.

It has proposed a final dividend of ₹17.50 for FY23. In terms of deals, in FY23, total contract value (TCV) stood at $9.8 billion and for Q4 it was $2.1 billion. Talking about generative AI, Parekh said they are leveraging generative AI capabilities for the clients. "We anticipate generative AI to provide more opportunities for work with our clients and also enable us to improve our own productivity," he said. "We have trained open-source generative AI platforms on our own internal software development libraries," he added.

As of March 31, 2023, the company's total headcount stands at 3,43,234. On hiring, Infosys said it has rich bench utilisation at 80% and they are ready to move into production projects. Infosys said that they have an agile model of hiring as demand picks up they have the flexibility as well. The firm's voluntary attrition has been coming down as it stood at 20.9% in Q4. It was 24.3% in December 2022 and 27.7% for the quarter ended March 31, 2022. "We have expanded our internal program on efficiency and cost to build a path to higher margins in the medium term. RBI begins evaluating bids for IDBI Bank, 5 bidders show interest

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

THE Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has begun evaluating the bids for IDBI Bank, showing that the process of divestment of government-owned lender is on track.

Kotak Mahindra Bank, Canadian investor Prem Watsa-backed CSB Bank and UAE-based Emirates NBD are among the five bidders keen to take control of IDBI Bank in which government holds majority stake. The government owns 45.48% of IDBI Bank, and is planning to divest a 30.48% stake in the lender while Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC), which holds 49.24%, plans to offload 30.24%

"The central bank is assessing expression of interest of 'a number of bidders'. RBI does not comment on individual cases," said a source.

The development comes after the government received bids from 'multiple bidders' for IDBI stake sale. After getting the bids, the expressions of interest are sent to the central bank to check whether they pass the 'fit and proper' criteria. A potential bidder can acquire majority stake in domestic banks only after passing the 'fit and proper' test, which includes extensive background and financial checks by the RBI.

Reacting the news, shares of IDBI Bank surged 10% on the BSE on Thursday. Government's stake sale in the bank is crucial as it will set course for divestment of other public sector entities. Regulators have cleared decks for divestment of IDBI Bank by giving required approvals. In January, capital markets regulator Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) allowed central government to classify its stake in the bank as 'public' after its stake sale on condition that its voting rights don't exceed 15% of the total voting rights of the bank.

As per the Sebi, the government's intent to reclassify its shareholding as public must be specified in the offer document at the time an open offer is made by the new acquirer of the lender. Currently, the government is classified as a co-promoter of the lender. As per the recent announcement by IDBI Bank, Sebi has directed the new buyer to comply with minimum public shareholding norms within one year of the sale.

MKT RISES FOR 9TH CONSECUTIVE TRADING SESSION

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

DOMESTIC equity market's 9-consecutive days winning run is the longest since October 2020 but a poor earning show by IT majors may soon break the rally. Add to it, global markets may see increased volatility after the FOMC minutes hinted at a possible "mild recession".

The BSE Sensex on Thursday ended at 60,431, up by 38.23 points while Nifty50 closed at 17,828, up by 15.60 points. In the past nine sessions, Sensex has gained about 2,800 points while the Nifty50 has surged about 870 points. Vinod Nair, head of Research at Geojit Financial Services, said shares experienced a downturn on Thursday, weighed down by IT stocks following weak quarterly earnings and a cautious outlook from the top IT firm, which flagged apprehensions over deferred spending and uncertainty in its BFSI segment.

Shares of TCS fell 1.60% on Thursday while Infosys plummeted nearly 3%. HCL and Tech Mahindra plunged by 2% while Wipro dipped by over 1%. It was due to buying in select heavyweights especially from the banking pack trimmed the initial losses and helped Sensex and Nifty-to close with minor gains. Many experts were expecting the local market to advance sharply after India and the US reported a sharp dip in consumer inflation for March. However, this did not happen.

"The decrease in CPI inflation to 5.66% in India, coupled with the moderation of core inflation, supports the decision of the MPC to keep policy rates on hold. While US inflation cooled to 5.0%, anxieties grew globally after the FOMC minutes hinted at a possible "mild recession" due to the impact of banking turmoil," added Nair. Shrikant Chouhan, Head of Equity Research (Retail), Kotak Securities, said that the sharp intra-day gyration of Thursday shows that the rally could be losing steam given the continuous upward movement over the past week or so.

Market likely to advance further as inflation falls

Many experts were expecting the local market to advance sharply after India and the US reported a sharp dip in consumer inflation for March. However, this did not happen. Shares of TCS fell 1.60% on Thursday while Infosys plummeted 3%, HCL and Tech Mahindra plunged 2%

Goods exports to China fall 28% in FY23

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

INDIA'S trade deficit with China widened to $83 billion in FY23 from $72 billion in FY22, according to the commerce ministry data.

While total exports to the neighbouring country fell by nearly 28% to $15.32 billion in FY23, total imports surged by 4.16% to $98.51 billion in FY23.

However, China's share in India's merchandise imports declined to 13.79% in FY23 from 15.43% in FY22. Notably, imports of electronic goods from China witnessed a decline of around $2 billion in FY23 as against the same period of last year.

"Import share from China in electronic goods has also declined from 48.1% in 2021-22 (Apr-Feb) to 41.9% in 2022-23 (Apr-Feb). A significant fall in share from China seen in imports of fertilizers from 21.9% in 2021-22 (Apr-Feb) to 13.9% in 2022-23 (Apr-Feb) and this accounts for around half a billion fall in imports from China," the government said in a statement.

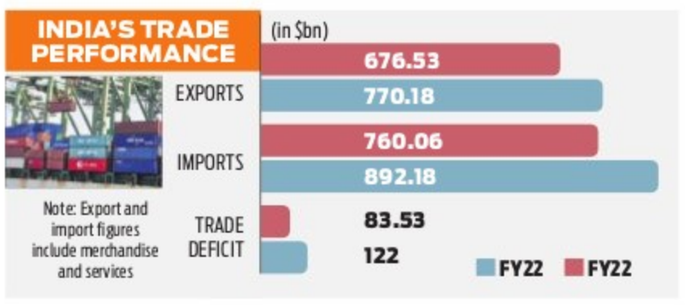
According to the government sources, the country cannot make everything on its own at his juncture.

"There will be certain imports which will be getting into your exports. You cannot get everything on your own. If you are making a car or any electronic item, for eg, you won't be making every component on your own," a government official said.

He further added that the country is one of the fastest growing economies in the world, so domestic consumption also expands which leads to more dependence on imports of certain goods.

"So, keeping this in mind, trade deficit itself as a parameter should not question the competitiveness of our export items," the official cited above said who didn't want to be quoted.

Meanwhile, imports from Russia grew 369% as the country increased its supply of cheaper crude oil to India after it faced sanctions from the West due to war with Ukraine.



Overall exports rise 14% to $770 billion

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

Amid global slowdown, India's overall trade deficit widened to $122 billion in FY23 from $83 billion in the previous year, according to the commerce ministry data. This was despite the overall increase in the exports to $770 billion in the current fiscal from $676 billion in FY22.

"Total exports have exceeded the FY23 target of $750 billion by $20 billion. This is despite the global headwinds that India registered an on year jump of $94 billion in annual trade," Commerce Secretary Sunil Barthwal said on Thursday during a press briefing. Overall imports surged by 17.38% to $892.18 billion in FY 23. In March 2023, merchandise exports fell 14% to $38 billion from $44 billion in the same month last year. Merchandise trade deficit during the month rose 6.5% to $20 billion. In FY23, merchandise exports were up 6% to $447.5 billion. In Merchandise exports, electronic goods (with 50% growth) and petroleum products (40%) posted the sharpest gain in FY23, apart from others like rice, chemicals and drugs & pharmaceutical products. Items that saw marginal decrease in exports on-year include engineering goods, cotton, plastic and linoleum, iron ore besides gems and jewellery. Meanwhile, overall imports rose on account of steep rise in imports of petroleum and crude products, textile, cotton raw and waste, coal, iron and steel etc. Items that registered slight fall in imports include pulses, medicinal and pharmaceutical products, pearls, precious and semi-precious stones.

Exports cross target

Total exports have exceeded FY23 target of $750 bn by $20 bn. In March 2023, merchandise exports declined14% to $38 bn from $44 bn in year-ago period

Neeraj to start season at Doha

Olympic champion javelin thrower Neeraj Chopra will begin his season at the Diamond League in Doha on May 5. The 25-year-old Chopra, the reigning DL champ, will join world champion Anderson Peters of Grenada and Olympic silver medallist Jakub Vadlejch of the Czech Republic in the first meet of the 14-leg one-day series of the season.

In a fresh twist, new global body, World Boxing, launched to 'save sport'

INDRANEEL DAS @Chennai

IN a major development, a new international boxing federation has been launched to retain the sport in the Olympic Games. The body will be called World Boxing and its primary objective would be to ensure the sport is part of the Olympics in Paris and beyond. WB felt since the International Boxing Association (IBA) has still not mended its relationship with the International Olympic Committee (IOC), they were forced to take this step.

"A collection of boxing leaders from National Federations across the world have created a new, not-for-profit, international federation, World Boxing, which aims to ensure that boxing remains at the heart of the Olympic movement," read a statement on the WB website. "World Boxing has been established in response to the persistent issues surrounding Olympic-style boxing's existing international governing body, whose failures to address the IOC's longstanding concerns over sporting integrity, governance, transparency and financial management has placed boxing's future as an Olympic sport in doubt."

Dutch Boxing Federation chief Boris van der Vorst, who is also part of the interim board of World Boxing, said that they are doing this to help the sport keep its Olympic status. The Dutch federation is part of the eight-nation Common Cause Alliance that also includes the US, Ireland, United Kingdom, Australia, France, Canada, Philippines and Ireland. Most of these countries also boycotted the Women's World Boxing Championships in New Delhi. "Several national federations were wary with the present situation of boxing and the threat it is facing at the Olympics, so we had to act now and for the future of boxing community, the next gen boxers in particular," van der Vorst told this daily from England. "We formed this around December and today (Thursday) was the official launch," he said.

"You have seen recent publications in the IOC. The IBA has been in suspension since 2019, four years ago. There is no way the suspension will be lifted in such short-term. This is the biggest nightmare you can face as an administrator, losing the Olympic status. That is not what we want to happen

As for the structure of the WB, it's still an ongoing process." He said that the membership packets will be distributed in a few days but it all depends on the national federations. "It is their responsibility. We have had a lot of conversations in the last few days and I think a lot of national federations will join. It's about competing in the Olympics and I think they should make smart choice," he said, adding that UK boxing and Ireland boxing's support is a strong statement made by strong boxing nations. "I am very happy that they are part of our group and for them the Olympics is very important. It's a wise decision."

As of now, the new body is not sure how many of the nations are with them, including the Common Cause Alliance. "It's very early to say because every national association will have to follow its own process. They have to change their statutes so that they can join a new IF. For example, the federation I come from, we need to get permission from the general assembly to switch federations."

The official also added that WB has not had communication with the IOC. "Until now, we have not had any discussion with the IOC. It has to be initiated from the boxing world itself. But of course we are looking for professional recognition by the IOC."

Will this launch not affect the Olympic qualifications? "We put the interest of boxers first. We are not trying to confuse the boxers at all. This time the qualification could be for example in Europe it will be through European Games and for that IOC will be in charge. We will communicate with the IOC and tell them we are available to assist them."

It needs to be seen how the IBA reacts.

Little by name, big on impact

The 23-year-old left-arm pacer from Titans is keeping the Irish flag flying high in the franchise league

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @Chennai

THIS is an exciting time to be an Irish international men's cricketer. After playing a series in Bangladesh (three ODIs, three T20Is and a Test), they are currently in Sri Lanka to play their first-ever two-Test series. It was originally supposed to be a Test and two ODIs but the two boards agreed to a change in schedule. Later in the summer, they are also scheduled to play a Test against England at Lord's. They began 2023 with a total of three Tests in their history. By the time the year is done, they will be at least at seven.

There is another reason to be excited. If you walk into the team hotel at Galle, the venue of the first Test beginning on Sunday, you may find a bunch of Irish cricketers decked up in the colour of the Gujarat Titans - navy blue, a touch of gold and some white - whenever the side is in action in the Indian Premier League (IPL). One of their own, Josh Little, is part of the franchise and Andy Balbirnie, in a recent interview to Cricinfo, had described themselves as the 'Irish Gujarat Titans Supporters Club'.

It's easy to see why. Little, when he made his debut for the holders against Chennai Super Kings in the opener, had become the first active Irish cricketer to play in the franchise league. For top-ranked nations, that may not sound like much. For a country like Ireland, that's an achievement in and of itself. "We are all incredibly proud," says Warren Deutrom, the chief executive of Cricket Ireland. "No doubt that outside the ICC world events, it's (IPL) the best opportunity to see the best players in one place. To have one of our players who's risen so quickly to be part of the champion team is so exciting."

Gujarat Titans' Josh Little (L)is the first active Irish cricketer to be a part of the Indian Premier League | SPORTZPICS

It's why a) there was a bidding war for Little between Titans and Lucknow Super Giants (the pair traded paddles all the way from ₹50 lakh to ₹4.4 cr) and b) he made his debut straightaway. Forget the one obvious advantage - left-arm quick - the 23-year-old has. He is on his way to becoming one of the best versions in the shortest of formats. He had displayed his full repertoire in the rain-affected game against England at the T20 World Cup when he snaffled Jos Buttler for zero before accounting for Alex Hales an over later. He was a big point of reference at the tournament as he picked up 11 wickets, including a hattrick against New Zealand. Across 36 T20 games in 2022, he picked up 59 wickets (7th best in 2022) at 7.4 while picking up a wicket every 13 balls.

While he has had a tough start to IPL life, he showed his tricks against Shikhar Dhawan on Thursday. He moved the ball away before bringing in one with the angle. It cramped him for room and he ended up chipping one to mid-on.

Little's rise has, predictably, given rise to a familiar problem of franchise v. country. Deutrom is mindful of 'the balance' they are trying to achieve. "I don't think there's a specific science to this. You don't treat every player... everything is on a case-by-case basis...," he says. But Little's global exploits also offers Cricket Ireland to sing a different tune with respect to changing the perceptions of cricket in the country. "Achievements such as those by Josh are incredibly important to realise those objectives," Duetrom says.

It makes us very proud to see an Irish cricketer among the best players of the world on a consistent basis. To have one of our players who's risen so quickly to be part of the champion team is so exciting.

-Warren Deutrom, chief executive of Cricket Ireland

On the subject of the three-match T20I series between India and Ireland, Duetrom revealed they were in talks with the BCCI at this point. "We know the games are likely to be in the second half of August," he said. "Probably going to be played in a window between 18-23 of August."

Would like for the injuries to stop, says CSK coach Fleming

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @Chennai

IT was a case of so near yet so far for Chennai Super Kings as they lost to Rajasthan Royals by just three runs on Wednesday. Despite injury concerns in the team, CSK were in the hunt till the last ball, but poor shot selection by the top-order and sloppy fielding did them in.

CSK head coach Stephen Fleming was visibly disappointed with his batters show, not to forget the extras that his bowlers conceded. "Yes, little things like extras, the little sloppy in the field with some catches going down and little things on the day are going to matter as the competition is getting tighter and little things like these will determine results. We lost momentum in the middle, and their (Rajasthan) spinners bowled well. Some good hitting at the end got us close," said Fleming.

Fleming insisted that skipper MS Dhoni was nursing a knee injury, which was hindering him. "He (Dhoni) is nursing a knee injury which you can see in some of his movement, hindering him somewhat. His fitness has been professional. He comes in months before the tournament starts. He does some netting in Ranchi, but his main pre-season is a month before he comes to Chennai," said Fleming.

The coach was also disappointed with another blow that the hosts suffered with Sisanda Magala having split his webbing after bowling only two overs in the crucial game. "For us, it's losing another player - that's two games in a row - and we're already pretty thin, so we'd like it (injuries) to stop. Magala's hand was split unfortunately, so he was unable to bowl those last two overs. And same with Deepak Chahar in the last game, so we're operating on pretty thin resources," said Fleming.

The New Zealander had a laugh and asked if the media had half hour if he could summarise the injury updates from the team before adding, "Chahar is out for a few weeks. Magala is out for two weeks. Stokes is being monitored on a day to day basis. Sri Lankan pacer Matheesha Pathirana tested positive for Covid in New Zealand, has recovered and is available for selection now. We did not want to rush him back for this (Rajasthan) game."

CSK will have a short break before the next game against Royal Challengers Bangalore in Bengaluru on April 17. They are hoping to focus on player recovery till then.

"We'll do that (players recovery) in the next four days. But yeah, it's not ideal yet. The captain has to then think on his feet (if bowlers keep getting injured). Moeen Ali had to come back (after Magala hurt his webbing) and he hadn't had a great day but he got the wicket of (Jos) Buttler which was good. And you've got young players like Akash (Singh) who is coming in for his first game, having to bowl some key overs. It's not how we plan but T20 very rarely goes to plan," he said.

Buoyant Kolkata Knight Riders take on Sunrisers Hyderabad in Kolkata. A look...

EYES ON AGARWAL

When SRH signed Mayank Agarwal in the auction for ` 8.25 crore, it looked like a steal given the team combination they had and the opener's spin-hitting prowess. However, it has been a rather disappointing start for Agarwal so far as he is still searching for an impactful knock.

WILL DRE RUSS SHOW UP?

Andre Russell is one of the biggest mainstays of the KKR set up for the better part of a decade now. But the West Indian's injury struggles and his form could become a worry soon should the finisher doesn't start finishing games for his team like he used to in the past.

SUYASH STEALING THE SHOW

Having come in as an impact player against RCB, Suyash Sharma has been a rather constant in KKR's bowling attack. With Sunil Narine and Varun Chakravarthy for company, the young leg-spinner has made his mark in both the games he has played. He is likely to have a role against SRH as well.

Madrid secure solid lead on Chelsea in CL

AGENCIES @Madrid

KARIM Benzema and Marco Asensio struck for Real Madrid as they dominated 10-man Chelsea and opened up a 2-0 Champions League quarter-final first leg lead on Wednesday. The reigning champions eased to a comfortable win against Frank Lampard's side, who had Ben Chilwell sent off in the second half for pulling down Rodrygo Goes as he ran through on goal.

Benzema netted from close range after 21 minutes after Kepa Arrizabalaga tipped a Vinicius Junior effort into his path. Despite controlling the game, Madrid had to wait until the 74th minute for their second, with Asensio drilling home from the edge of the box. In a battle between the last two CL winners, Madrid demonstrated their strength, while Chelsea showed why they are struggling in 11th in the Premier League.

Milan beat Napoli

MILAN: AC Milan have the slenderest of advantages in their all-Italian Champions League quarter-final after Ismael Bennacer fired his team to a 1-0 win over wasteful Napoli on Wednesday. Algeria midfielder Bennacer lashed in the decisive strike five minutes before half-time of an engaging first leg at a packed, loud and wet San Siro after Brahim Diaz and Rafael Leao combined brilliantly.

The 25-year-old's second goal of the season ensured Milan's second win over Italy's champions-elect Napoli in less than a fortnight and a narrow lead to defend at the Stadio Maradona in Naples next week. "It will be a great return leg with a lot of tension and emotion," said Milan coach Stefano Pioli to Amazon Prime.

Gold medal pics & Aman's golden win

FIROZ MIRZA @Chennai

THE iconic Chhatrasal Stadium in the national capital was in the news for all the wrong reasons last year with its most successful pupil, double Olympic medallist Sushil Kumar, being jailed on a murder charge. The wrestling academy at the venue was apparently in disarray with the confidence of around 200 trainees at an all-time low.

It was then that coaches including Parveen Dahiya and motivational speaker Vickrant Mahajan came up with a novel idea. They decided to print hundreds of pictures of a gold medal and decorate the venue with them. Be it the training hall, dormitory, rooms of wrestlers and dining hall, the pictures were pasted everywhere. The aim was to shift focus to the ultimate prize, a gold medal, rather than the incident that not only shook the academy but the sporting fabric of the country.

"We want these wrestlers to aspire for gold irrespective of the competitions they are participating in. We want them to focus on wrestling instead of thinking about the incident. Vickrant, who has been working with Tokyo Olympics silver medallist Ravi Dahiya since 2019, suggested us the way and we liked it," Parveen told this daily.

The move started reaping dividends with young wrestlers shining at national and international meets. The talented Aman Sehrawat led the charge by bagging U23 World Championships gold in 57kg last year. He then won bronze in Zagreb Open Ranking Series in February this year. Aman bettered his show at the ongoing Asian Championships in Astana, Kazakhstan on Thursday by becoming the champion in his weight category. By doing so, Aman also helped the country to their first gold at the meet so far. Incidentally, it was Ravi, Aman's senior at Chhatrasal Stadium, who made a hat-trick of titles in the weight category last year at the continental championships. "It's good that the Indian wrestlers are dominating the weight category. It was Ravi who won three back-to-back gold at the event and in his absence due to injury, Aman ensured that India retained the gold," he added.

Aman Sehrawat

Aman defeated Japanese wrestler Rikuto Arai 7-1 in the quarterfinal before registering a 7-4 win over his Chinese rival Wanhao Zou in the next bout. He then beat local wrestler Almaz Smanbekov 9-4 to clinch the gold medal. "The idea behind pasting the pictures was to infuse gold medal into the consciousness of every trainee at the venue. Lack of resources and talent never hampered our show in international events. Instead, it's been a lack of aspiration that has been doing the damage. We wanted to raise the aspiration of our wrestlers. It's not about winning a medal but it's about winning them over and over again," Vickrant said. The good show will pitch Aman against Ravi with the first qualifier for the 2024 Paris Olympics slated in September this year. But Parveen is not bothered as all he wants is medals irrespective of who bags them. "Ravi missed the gold in Tokyo. He desperately wants it this time. Aman is doing good in the same weight category. They are bound to compete in the selection trials but it doesn't matter as all we want is our wrestlers winning Worlds and Olympics medals," Parveen said.

DEEPAK WINS 79KG BRONZE

As many as five Indian freestyle wrestlers were in action on Thursday but only Deepak (79kg) can finish on the podium apart from Aman. Others (Anuj Kumar 65kg, Mulayam Yadav 70kg and Deepak 97kg) couldn't add to India's tally. Five more wrestlers will seek medals on Friday.
